NATIONAL HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

1. OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

W. FRANC.

1. From all that dwell be - low the skies, Let the Cre - a - tor's praise a - rise;
2. E - ter - nal are Thy mer - cies, Lord; E - ter - nal truth at - tends Thy word;

Let the Re - deem - er's name be sung Thro' ev - 'ry land, by ev - 'ry tongue.
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore Till suns sha'l rise and set no more.

2. The Omnipresent God.

- 1 Father and Friend! Thy light, Thy love,
Beaming through all Thy works we see;
Thy glory fills the heavens above,
And all the earth is full of Thee.
- 2 Great Spirit! we Thy presence feel,
While Thou, too pure for mortal sight,
To human eyes invisible,
Reignest, the Lord of Life and Light.
- 3 Thy children shall not faint or fear,
Sustained by this inspiring thought,—
Since Thou, their God, art everywhere,
They cannot be where Thou art not.

3. The soul, God's Temple.

- 1 In every human mind we see
A temple made for Deity,
And righteous thoughts and acts declare
His holy Spirit's presence there.
- 2 The living God whom Moses saw,
Whose mind revealed the ancient law,
Within the reason and the will
Makes known His truth and goodness still.
- 3 In every age the hallowed light
Of revelation gilds the night;
Our creeds, like meteors, rise and fall:
Faith, Hope, and Love survive them all

4. The Rest of the Weary.

- 1 Eternal Source of light divine!
Fountain of unexhausted love!
O, let Thy glories on me shine,
From earth beneath, from heaven above
- 2 Thou art the weary wanderer's rest;
Give me Thine easy yoke to bear;
With steadfast patience arm my breast,
With spotless love and lowly fear.
- 3 Be Thou, O Rock of Ages! nigh,
So shall each murmuring thought be still,
And grief and fear and care shall fly,
As clouds before the midday sun —

5. The Lord's Prayer.

- 1 Father, adored in worlds above!
Thy glorious name be hallowed still;
Thy kingdom come in truth and love,
And earth, like heaven, obey Thy will.
- 2 Lord, make our daily wants Thy care;
Forgive the sins which we forsake;
In Thy compassion let us share,
As fellow-men of ours partake.
- 3 Evils beset us every hour;
Thy kind protection we implore,
Thine is the kingdom, Thine the power,
The glory Thine forever more

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But He forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Faith in His name forbids my fear;
Oh, may Thy presence ne'er depart!
And in the morning make me hear
Thy love and kindness in my heart.

7.

Our Guide and Stay.

1 For mercies past we praise Thee, Lord,
The fruits of earth, the hopes of heaven,
Thy helping arm, Thy guiding word,
And answered prayers, and sins forgiven.

2 Whene'er we tread on danger's height,
Or walk temptation's slippery way,
Be still, to lead our steps aright,
Thy word our guide, Thine arm our stay!

3 Be ours Thy blessed presence still;
United hearts, unchanging love;
No thought that contradicts Thy will,
No wish that centres not above!

I will arise and go unto my Father.

1 To Thine eternal arms, O God,
Take us, Thine erring children, in;
From dangerous paths too boldly trod,
From wand'ring thots and dreams of sin

2 Those arms were round our childish ways,
A guard through helpless years to be;
O leave not our maturer days,
We still are helpless without Thee!

3 We trusted hope and pride and strength;
Our strength proved false, our pride was vain,
Our dreams have faded all at length,—
We come to Thee, O Lord, again!

4 A guide to trembling steps yet be!
Give us of Thine eternal powers!
So shall our paths all lead to Thee,
And life smile on like childhood's hours

Independence.

1 How happy is he born or taught
Who serveth not another's will;
Whose armor is his honest thought,
And simple truth his highest skill.

2 Whose passions not his masters are;
Whose soul is still prepared for death;
Not tied unto the world with care
Of public fame or private breath;

3 Who God doth late and early pray
More of His grace than goods to lend,
And walks with man, from day to day,
As with a brother and a friend!

4 This man is freed from servile bands,
Of hope to rise, or fear to fall;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, yet hath all.

1. O, stay thy tears! for they are blest Whose days are past, whose toil is done;

Here midnight care disturbs our rest, Here sorrow dims the morning sun.

2 How blest are they whose transient years
Pass like an evening meteor's flight,
Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears,
Whose course is short, unclouded, bright!

3 O, cheerless were our lengthened way,
But heaven's own light dispels the gloom,
Streams downward from eternal day,
And sheds a glory round the tomb!

4 Then stay thy tears,—the blest above
Have hailed a spirit's heavenly birth,
Sung a new song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on earth?

11. All things work for good.

1 We all, O Father, all are Thine;
All feel Thy providential care;
And, through each varying scene of life,
Alike Thy constant love we share.

2 And whether grief oppress the heart;
Or whether joy elate the breast;
Or life still keep its little course;
Or death invite the heart to rest;—

3 All are Thy messengers, and all
Thy sacred pleasure, Lord, obey;
And all are training man to dwell
Nearer to heaven, and nearer Thee.

The Seed.

1 Now is the seed-time; God alone
Beholds the end of what is sown;
Beyond our vision, weak and dim,
The harvest time is hid with Him.

2 Yet forgotten where it lies,
The seed of generous sacrifice,
Though seeming on the desert cast,
Shall rise with bloom and fruit at last.

FROM "HARP OF JUDAH."

L. O. EMERSON.

- 2 I will resolve, with all my heart,
With all my powers, to serve the Lord;
Nor from His precepts e'er depart,
Whose service is a rich reward.
- 3 Oh, be His service all my joy!
Around let my example shine,
Till others love the blest employ,
And join in labors so divine.
- 4 Oh, may I never faint nor tire,
Nor, wandering, leave His sacred ways;
Great God! accept my soul's desire,
And give me strength to live Thy praise.

14.

The Beneficence of God.

- 1 God of the universe, whose hand
Hath sown with suns the fields of space,
Round which, obeying Thy command,
Unnumbered worlds fulfil their race!
- 2 How vast the region where Thy will Existence, form, and order gives,
Pleased the wide cup with joy to fill,
For all that grows, and feels, and lives.

- 3 Lord! while we thank Thee, let us learn
Beneficence to all below:
They praise Thee best whose bosoms burn
Thy gifts on others to bestow.

15.

Grateful reliance on God.

- 1 How rich the blessings, O my God!
Which teach this grateful heart to glow;
How kindly poured, and free bestowed,
The rivers of Thy mercy flow!
- 2 How calmly rolls the sea of life!
Secure in Thine immortal trust,
The soul has hushed her secret strife,
Nor longer shudders at the dust.
- 3 Though sorrow's cloud awhile o'er-cast
The dawn of earthly hope and joy,
She knows that it must soon be past,
And will unveil eternity.
- 4 Then virtue's humble toil and prayer
Shall stand acknowledged at Thy throne,
Triumphant over earthly care;
And the blest record Thou wilt own.

FROM "HARP OF JUDAH."

REDEMPTION. L. M.

FROM CHERUBINI, BY
L. O. EMERSON.

ADAPTED FROM HAYDN, BY W. H. MONK.

3 Our midnight is Thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is Thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow's arch Thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are Thine.

4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love;
Before Thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

5 Grant us Thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for Thee,
Till all Thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

3 Not bound by party, caste or creed,
All narrow realms of self above;
For whoso of our love hath need,
To him we owe the dues of love.

4 Into the circle lift us up
Of Thy divine beneficence;
And, freely as Thou fill'st our cup,
Freely may we to all dispense.

18. Commune with thine own heart.

1 O Thou great God! whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep recess,
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And with Thy presence fill the place.

2 Through all the mazes of my heart
My search let heavenly wisdom guide,
And still its radiant beams impart,
Till all be searched and purified.

3 Then with the visits of Thy love
Do Thou mine inmost spirit cheer, -
Till every grace shall join to prove
That God has fixed His dwelling here.

17. Universal love.

1 O Father! when the softened heart
Is lifted up in prayer to Thee,
When earthly thoughts awhile depart,
And leave the mounting spirit free;

2 Then teach us that our love, like Thine,
O'er all the realms of earth should flow,
A shoreless stream, a flood divine,
No lines of race or hue should know;

REDEMPTION. Concluded.

1. The past is dark with sin and shame, The fu-ture dim with doubt and fear:
2. For man has striv-en, a - ges long, With falt'ring steps to come to Thee,

But Father, yet we praise Thy name, Whose guardian love is al - ways near.
And in each pur - pose high and strong The influence of Thy grace could see.

3 He could not breathe an earnest prayer,
But Thou wast kinder than he dreamed,
As age by age brought hopes more fair,
And nearer still Thy kingdom seemed.

4 But never rose within his breast
A trust so calm and deep as now;—
Shall not the weary find a rest?
Father, Preserver, answer Thou!

5 'Tis dark around, 'tis dark above,
But through the shadow streams the sun;
We cannot doubt Thy certain love;
And man's true aim shall yet be won.

20. Under His wings shalt thou trust.

1 Father! beneath Thy sheltering wing
In sweet security we rest,
And fear no evil earth can bring;
In life, in death, supremely blest.

2 For life is good, whose tidal flow
The motions of Thy will obeys;
And death is good, that makes us know
The Life divine which all things sways.

3 And good it is to bear the cross,
And so Thy perfect peace to win;
And naught is ill, nor brings us loss,
Nor works us harm, save only sin.

4 Redeemed from that, we ask no more,
But trust the Love that saves, to guide;
The Grace that yields so rich a store
Will grant us all we need beside.

21. The true use of time.

1 Like shadows gliding o'er the plain,
Or clouds that roll successive on,
Man's busy generations pass;
And while we gaze, their forms are gone.

2 O Father! in whose mighty hand
The boundless years and ages lie,
Teach us Thy boon of life to prize,
And use the moments as they fly.

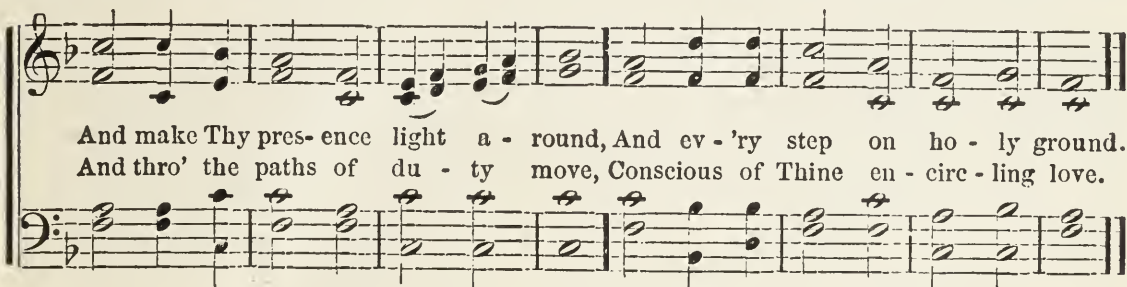

3 To crowd the narrow span of life
With wise designs and virtuous deeds:
And so shall death but lead us on
To nobler service that succeeds.

GRATITUDE. L. M.

H. K. OLIVER.

1. Thro' all this life's e - vent-ful road, Fain would I walk with Thee, my God;
2. Each bless-ing would I trace to Thee, In ev - 'ry grief Thy mer - cy see;

And make Thy pres-ence light a - round, And ev - 'ry step on ho - ly ground.
And thro' the paths of du - ty move, Conscious of Thine en - circ - ling love.

3 And when the angel Death stands by,
Be this my strength, that Thou art nigh;
And this my joy, that I shall be
With those who dwell in light with Thee.

5 Speak to convince, forgive, console:
Childlike we yield to Thy control:
These hearts, too often closed before,
Would grieve Thy patient love no more.

23. Speak, Lord, Thy servant heareth.

- 1 While now Thy throne of grace we seek,
O God! within our spirits speak;
For we will hear Thy voice to-day,
Nor turn our hardened hearts away.
- 2 Speak in Thy gentlest tones of love,
Till all our best affections move;
We long to hear no meaner call,
But feel that Thou art all in all.
- 3 To conscience speak Thy quickening word,
Till all its sense of sin is stirred;
For we would leave no stain of guile,
To cloud the radiance of Thy smile.
- 4 Speak, Father, to the anxious heart,
Till every fear and doubt depart:
For we can find no home or rest,
Till with Thy Spirit's whispers blest.

24.

In Spirit and in Truth.

- 1 O God, whose presence glows in all
Within, around us, and above!
Thy word we bless, Thy name we call,
Whose word is Truth, whose name is Love.
- 2 That Truth be with the heart believed
Of all who seek this sacred place;
With power proclaimed, in peace received;
Our spirit's light, Thy Spirit's grace.
- 3 That Love its holy influence pour,
To keep us meek, and make us free;
And throw its binding blessing more
Round each with all, and all with Thee.
- 4 Send down its angel to our side;
Send in its calm upon the breast;
For we would know no other guide,
And we can need no other rest.

GRATITUDE. Concluded.

1. How sweetly flowed the gospel's sound From lips of gen-tle-ness and grace.
2. From heav'n he came, of heav'n he spoke, To heav'n he led his fol-lowers' way;

When list'ning thousands gathered round, And joy and rev-'rence filled the place.
Dark clouds of gloom-y night he broke, Un-veil-ing an im-mor-tal day.

3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest!"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest.

Good life, long life.

- 1 He liveth long, who liveth well;
All else is life but flung away;
He liveth longest who can tell
Of true things truly done each day.
- 2 Then fill each hour with what will last,
Buy up the moments as they go;
The life above, when this is past,
Is the ripe fruit of life below.
- 3 Sow love, and taste its fruitage pure;
Sow peace, and reap its harvest bright;
Sow sunbeams on the rock and moor,
And find a harvest-home of light.

Parting Hymn.

- 1 Thy presence, ever-living God!
Wide through all nature spreads abroad;
Thy watchful eyes, which never sleep,
In every place Thy children keep.

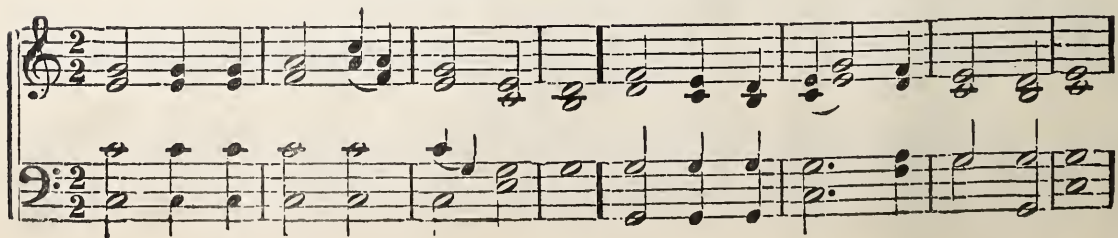

2 While near each other we remain,
Thou dost our lives and powers sustain;
When separate, we rejoice to share
Thy counsels, and Thy gracious care.

3 To Thee we now commit our ways,
And still implore Thy heavenly grace;
Still cause Thy face on us to shine,
And guard and guide us still as Thine.

Not in Temples made with Hands.

- 1 O Lord! where'er Thy people meet,
There they behold Thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek Thee, Thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
- 2 For Thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring Thee where they come,
And, going, take Thee to their home.
- 3 Here may we prove the power of prayer
To strengthen faith, and sweeten care;
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

1. Blest Spir - it, source of grace di - vine, What soul- re - fresh-ing streams are Thine!

Oh, bring these heal - ing wa - ters nigh, Or we must droop and fall and die!

2 No traveller, through desert lands,
Mid scorching suns and burning sands,
More eager longs for cooling rain.
Or pants the current to obtain.

3 Our longing souls aloud would sing,
Spring up, celestial fountain, spring;
To a redundant river flow,
And cheer this thirsty land below.

4 May this blest river, near my side,
Through all my journey gently glide;
Then, in Emmanuel's land above,
Spread to a sea of joy and love.

4 I have no skill the snare to shun,
But Thou, O God! my wisdom art,
I ever into ruin run:
But Thou art greater than my heart.

5 Foolish and ignorant and blind,
Lead me a way I have not known;
Bring me where I my heaven may find,
The heaven of loving Thee alone

31. Living to the Glory of God.

1 O Thou, who hast at Thy command
The hearts of all men in Thy hand!
Our wayward, erring hearts incline
To know no other will but Thine.

2 Our wishes, our desires, control;
Mould every purpose of the soul;
O'er all may we victorious be
That stands between ourselves and Thee.

3 Thrice blest will all our blessings be,
When we can look through them to Thee,
When each glad heart its tribute pays
Of love, and gratitude and praise.

4 And while we to Thy glory live,
May we to Thee all glory give,
Until the final summons come,
That calls Thy willing servants home.

30. In whose hand are all thy ways.

1 God of my life, whose gracious power
Through varied death's my soul hath led,
Or turned aside the fatal hour,
Or lifted up my sinking head!

2 In all my ways Thy hand I own,
Thy ruling providence I see;
Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to Thee.

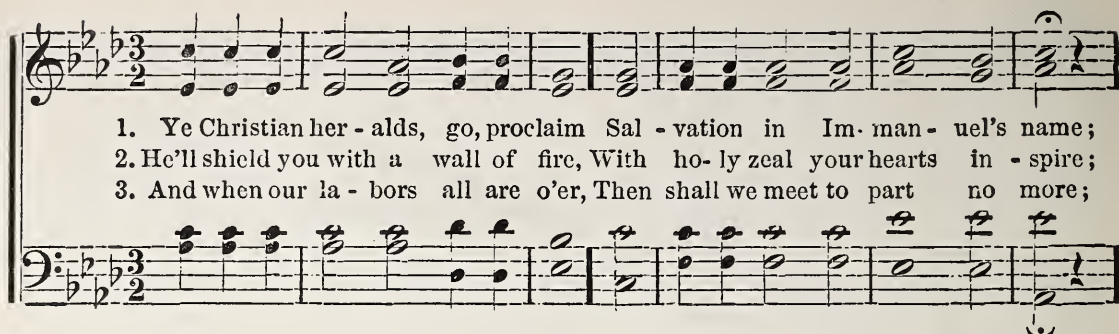

3 Whither, Oh, whither should I fly,
But to my loving Father's breast;
Secure within Thine arms to lie,
And safe beneath Thy wings to rest!

ZEPHYR. Concluded.

12 32. MISSIONARY CHANT. L. M.

CHAS. MEUNER.

1. Ye Christian her - alds, go, proclaim Sal - vation in Im - man - uel's name;
 2. He'll shield you with a wall of fire, With ho - ly zeal your hearts in - spire;
 3. And when our la - bors all are o'er, Then shall we meet to part no more;

To distant climes the tidings bear, And plant the Rose of Sha - ron there.
 Bid raging winds their fu - ry cease, And calm the sav - age breast to peace.
 Meet, with the ransomed throng to fall, And crown Je - ho - vah Lord of all.

33. He spake by His holy Prophets.

- 1 O for that flame of living fire
Which shone so bright in saints of old;
Which bade their souls to heaven aspire,
Calm in distress, in danger bold!
- 2 O for the spirit which of old
Proclaimed Thy love, and taught Thy ways;
Forth in Isaiah's thunder rolled,
And breathed in David's tenderest lays!
- 3 O for that spirit, Lord, which dwelt
In Jesus' breast and sealed him Thine;
Which made Paul's heart with sorrow melt,
And glow with energy divine!
- 4 Is not Thy word as mighty now
As when those prophets felt its power?
The ancient days remember Thou,
The ancient inspiration shower!

34. Thou hast beset me behind and before.

- 1 Within Thy circling arms we lie,
O God! in Thy infinity;
Our souls in quiet shall abide
Beset with love on every side.
- 2 Within Thy circling power we stand;
On every side we see Thy hand;
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
We are surrounded still with God.
- 3 How sure His law, how great His might!
His holiness, how infinite!
How reverend is His majesty!
His wisdom, O, how deep and high!
- 4 O may these thoughts possess our breast,
Where'er we rove, wher'er we rest;
Nor let our lower passions dare
Consent to sin, for God is there!

MENDON. L. M.

Ar. by DR. MASON.

2 Let him look forth into the night;
What solemn depths, what silent might!
Those ancient stars, how calm they roll,—
He but an atom 'mid the whole!

3 And, as the evening wind sweeps by,
He needs must feel his God as nigh;
Must needs that unseen Presence own,
Thus always near, too long unknown.

4 How small, in that uplifted hour,
Temptation's lure, and passion's power!
How weak the foe that made him fall,
How strong the soul to conquer all!

5 A mighty wind of nobler will
Sends thro' his soul its quick'ning thrill;
No more a creature of the clod,
He knows himself a child of God.

36.

Self-Dedication.

1 O Lord, Thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be
To dedicate myself to Thee.

2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be
That all my hopes are fixed on Thee.

3 Thy glorious life pervadeth space;
Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
And, wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit cleave to Thee

4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath Thy sheltering wing,
My sweetest thought henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in Thee.

37.

1 Now with creation's morning song
Let us, as children of the day,
With wakened heart and purpose strong,
The works of darkness cast away.

2 O may the morn so pure, so clear,
Its own sweet calm in us instil,—
A guileless mind, a heart sincere,
Simplicity of word and will.

3 And ever, as the day glides by,
May we the busy senses rein,
Keep guard upon the hand and eye,
Nor let the conscience suffer stain.

4 Grant us, O God! in love to Thee,
Clear eyes to measure things below;
Faith, the invisible to see,
And wisdom, Thee in all to know.

MENDON. Concluded.

1. In sleep's se - rene ob - liv - ion laid, I safe - ly pass'd the si - lent night;

A - gain I see the break - ing shade, I drink a - gain the morning light.

- 2 New-born, I bless the waking hour;
Once more, with awe, rejoiced to be;
My conscious soul resumes her power,
And springs, my guardian God! to Thee.
- 3 O guide me through the various maze
My doubtful feet are doomed to tread;
And spread Thy shield's protecting blaze
Where dangers press around my head.

39. The Spirit itself prayeth for us.

- 1 Our Father, God, who lovest all,
The same through one eternal day,
Attend Thy children's yearning call,
Instruct and move their hearts to pray.
- 2 We cannot think a gracious thought,
We cannot feel a good desire,
But Thou, who callest worlds from naught
The power dost in our hearts inspire.
- 3 Come in Thy pleading Spirit down
To us who for Thy coming stay;
Of all Thy gifts we ask but one,
We ask the constant power to pray.

40. My soul waiteth for the Lord.

- 1 At anchor laid, remote from home,
Toiling, I cry, Sweet Spirit, come!
Celestial breeze, no longer stay,
But swell my sails and speed my way!
- 2 Fain would I mount, fain would I glow,
And loose my cable from below;
But I can only spread my sail,— [gale.
Thou, Thou, must breathe the auspicious

41. Spiritual communion.

- 1 Far from my thoughts, vain world, be gone,
Leave my religious hours alone!
From flesh and sense I would be free,
And hold communion, Lord, with Thee.
- 2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire,
To find Thy peace, to taste Thy love,
And feel Thy presence from above.
- 3 When I can know that God is mine,
And feel my kindred so divine,
I tread the world beneath my feet,
And all that men call rich and great.

1. "Come hith-er, all ye wea-ry souls,.... Ye hea-vy - lad - en sinners, come;
2. "They shall find rest, who learn of me;..... I'm of a meek and lowly mind;

I'll give you rest from all your toils, And raise you to..... my heavenly home.
But passion ra - ges like the sea, And pride is rest - less as the wind.

- 3 "Blest is the man whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight;
My yoke is easy to his neck,
My grace shall make the burden light."
4 Jesus, we come at thy command,
With faith and hope and humble zeal;
Resign our spirits to thy hand,
To mould and guide us at thy will.

43. Teachings of the Spirit.

- 1 Come, blessed Spirit, Source of light,
Whose power and grace are unconfined,
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,—
The thicker darkness of the mind.
2 Thine inward teachings make me know
The wonders of redeeming love,
The emptiness of things below,
The excellence of things above.
3 While through these dubious paths I stray,
Spread, like the sun, Thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

44.

Light of souls.

- 1 O Thou pure light of souls that love,
True joy of every human breast,
Sower of life's immortal seed,
Our Father and Redeemer blest!
2 Be Thou our guide, be Thou our goal,
Be Thou our pathway to the skies;
Our joy when sorrow fills the soul,
In death our everlasting prize.

45.

Daily Bread.

- 1 Thy name be hallowed evermore;
O God! Thy kingdom come with power,
Thy will be done, and day by day
Give us our daily bread, we pray.
2 Lord! evermore to us be given
The living bread which comes from heaven;
Eternal life on us bestow;
Thou art the Gift, the Giver Thou.

2. Wide as the wheels of na - ture roll, Thy hand sup - ports the stead - y pole;

While in Thy tem - ple we ap - pear, Whose goodness crowns the circling year.
The sun is taught by Thee to rise, And darkness when to veil the skies.

3 Seasons and months and weeks and days
Demand successive songs of praise :
Still be the cheerful homage paid,
With opening light and evening shade.

4 Oh, may our more harmonious tongues
In worlds unknown pursue the songs ;
And in those brighter courts adore,
Where days and years revolve no more.

2 More glorious still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its waters shall o'erflow the world ;—

3 Flow to restore, but not destroy :
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps each lingering mist away.

47.

The Bread of Life.

- 1 Father, supply my every need ;
Sustain the life Thyself hast given ;
Oh ! grant the never-failing bread,
The manna that comes down from heaven !
- 2 The gracious fruits of righteousness,
Thy blessings' unexhausted store,
In me abundantly increase,
Nor ever let me hunger more !

48.

The spread of Truth.

- 1 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year doth Knowledge soar ;
And as it soars, Religion's light
Doth onward grow, from more to more.

49.

The Lord is in His Holy Temple.

- 1 Lo ! God is here ; let us adore,
And humbly bow before His face ;
Let all within us feel His power,
Let all within us seek His peace.
- 2 Lo ! God is here ; Him day and night
United choirs of angels sing ;
To Him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's host their noblest praises bring.
- 3 Being of beings ! may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill ;
Still may we stand before Thy face,
Still hear and do Thy sovereign will.

Thy grandeur in the march of night;
And, when the morning breaks in power,
We hear Thy word: Let there be light!

5 But higher far, and far more clear,
Thee in man's spirit we behold;
Thine image and Thyself are there,—
The Indwelling God, proclaimed of old.

51.

God is good.

1 Yes, God is good: in earth and sky,
From ocean-depths and spreading wood,
Ten thousand voices seem to cry,
"God made us all, and God is good."

2 The sun that keeps his trackless way,
And downward pours his golden flood,
Night's sparkling hosts, all seem to say,
In accents clear, that God is good.

3 I hear it in the rushing breeze:
The hills that have for ages stood,
The echoing sky and roaring seas,
All swell the chorus, "God is good."

4 Yes, God is good, all nature says,
By God's own hand with speech endued,
And man, in louder notes of praise,
Should sing for joy that God is good.

5 For all Thy gifts we bless Thee, Lord;
But chiefly for our heavenly food,
Thy pardoning love, Thy quickening word:
These prompt our song, that God is good.

52.

He sendeth Sun and Rain.

1 Father of lights! we sing Thy name,
Who kindlest up the lamp of day;
Wide as he spreads his golden flame,
His beams Thy power and love display.

2 Fountain of good! from Thee proceed
The copious drops of genial rain,
Which o'er the hill and through the mead
Revive the grass and swell the grain.

3 O may not our forgetful hearts
O'erlook the tokens of Thy care;
But what Thy liberal hand imparts,
Still own in praise, still ask in prayer!—

4 So shall our suns more grateful shine,
And showers in sweeter drops shall fall,
When all our hearts and lives are Thine,
And Thou, O God! enjoyed in all.

54. It is God who worketh in you.

- 1 Thou strong and loving God in man,
Who free'st us from the bonds of sin,
'Tis Thou the living spark dost fan
That sets my heart on fire within.
- 2 In Thee I find a nobler birth,
A glory o'er the world I see,
And Paradise springs up on earth
And blooms for those who live in Thee.

Towards Thy benignant throne of light,
Give answer in the dawning day
Of Freedom, Mercy, Truth and Right.

The perfect Sacrifice.

- 1 Thou, Lord, art Light; Thy native ray
No shade nor variation knows;
To darkened souls Thy light display,
The glory of Thy face disclose.
- 2 Thou, Lord, art Love; the fountain Thou,
Whence mercy unexhausted flows;
On barren hearts, O, shed it now,
And make the desert bear the rose!

In love and holy service, rise:
Yea, body, soul, and spirit be
Our ever-living sacrifice.

1 Eternal and immortal King!
 Thy peerless splendors none can bear;
 But darkness veils seraphic eyes,
 When God with all His glory's there.

 The great Invisible can see;
 And with its tremblings mingle joy,
 In fixed regard, great God! to Thee.

 Be thou a temple set apart;
 So shall thy Sovereign enter in,

1. Glo-ry to Thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light;
2. Forgive me, O Thou ho - ly One! The ill that I this day have done;

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings! Be-neath Thine own al-might - y wings.
That with the world, my- self, and Thee. I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 O may my soul on Thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close;
Sleep that shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God, when I awake.

4 May guardian angels, while I sleep,
Around my bed their vigils keep;
Guard all the avenues of ill,
And love angelical instil.

61. His tender mercies are over all.

1 Our God is good; in every place
His love is known, His help is found;
His mighty arm and tender grace
Bring good from ills that hem us round.

2 He who doth earth and heaven control,
Who spreads the clouds o'er sea and land,
Whose presence fills the mighty Whole,
In each true heart is close at hand.

3 Those whom the thoughtless world forsakes,
Who stand bewildered with their woe,
He gently to His bosom takes
And bids them all His fulness know.

4 What tho' thou tread'st with bleeding feet
A thorny path of grief and gloom;
Thy God will make that way most meet
To lead thee heavenward, lead thee home.

God in all.

1 There's nothing bright, above, below,
From flowers that bloom to stars that glow,
But in its light my soul can see
Some feature of the Deity.

2 There's nothing dark, below, above,
But in its gloom I trace Thy love,
And meekly wait the moment when
Thy touch shall make all bright again.

3 The heavens, the earth, where'er I look,
Shall be one pure and shining book,
Where I may read, in words of flame,
The glories of Thy wondrous name.

63.

Morning or Evening Song.

1 My God, how endless is Thy love!
Thy gifts are every evening new;
And morning mercies from above,
Gently distil, like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great Guardian of my sleeping hours:
Thy sovereign word restores the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to Thy command;
To Thee I consecrate my days;
Perpetual blessings from Thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

On Thee we cast each earth-born care, We smile at pain while Thou art near.
 No path we shun, no dark-ness dread, Our hearts still whisp'ring, Thou art near.

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
 And trembling faith is changed to fear,
 The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,

 Content to suffer, while we know,
 Living and dying, Thou art near.

 I follow, holding by Thy hand; [feed'st,
 With bread of heaven Thy child Thou
 And giv'st him water from the sand.
- 3 O Friend of souls! 'tis well indeed
 With me when on Thy love I lean;
 The world, nor pain, nor death I heed,
 Since Thou, my God, in all art seen.

The bitter Cup.

- 1 Thy will be done! I will not fear -
 The fate provided by Thy love;
 Tho' clouds and darkness shroud me here,
 I know that all is bright above.
- 2 The stars of heaven are shining on,
 Tho' these frail eyes are dimmed with tears;
 And though the hopes of earth be gone,
 Yet are not ours the immortal years?
- 3 Father! forgive the heart that elings,
 Thus trembling, to the things of time;
 And bid the soul, on angel wings,
 Ascend into a purer clime.
- 4 There shall no doubts disturb its trust,
 No sorrows dim celestial love;
 But these afflictions of the dust,
 Like shadows of the night, remove.

 This life of toil and care and woe;
 O Father! joyful on my way,
 To drink Thy bitter cup, I go.

Faith and Works.

1 One cup of healing oil and wine,
One offering laid on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to Thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.

2 In true and inward faith we trace
The source of every outward grace;
Within the pious heart it plays,
A living fount of joy and praise.

3 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream has found its way;
But, where these spring not rich and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

Give us each day our daily Bread.

1 Thy bounteous hand with food can bless
The bleak and barren wilderness,
And Thou hast taught us, Lord, to pray
For daily bread from day to day.

2 And O, when through the wilds we roam
That part us from our heavenly home;
When, lost in danger, want, and woe,
Our faithless tears begin to flow;

3 Do Thou Thy gracious comfort give,
By which alone the soul can live;
And grant Thy children, Lord, we pray,
The bread of life from day to day.

70.

Home in God.

1 Thou, Great Creator, art possessed,
And Thou alone, of perfect rest;
But we must toil and toil again,
With wearied strength and frequent pain

2 And yet our hearts that love Thee well,
Still long with Thee in peace to dwell;
Nor dost Thou cease, where'er we roam,
To bid us rest in Thee, our home.

EARL OF MORNINGTON. ADAPTED BY DR MASON.

3 The sons of God have found
That heaven begins below:
Celestial fruits, on earthly ground,
From faith and hope may grow.

4 Then let our sorrows cease,
And every tear be dry;
We're travelling thro' the paths of peace
To fairer worlds on high.

Doing all to God.

1 Teach me, my God and King,
In all things Thee to see;
And what I do in anything,
To do it as for Thee.

2 To scorn the senses' sway,
While still to Thee I tend;
In all I do be Thou the way;
In all be Thou the end.

3 All may of Thee partake;
Nothing so small can be,
But draws, when acted for Thy sake,
Greatness and worth from Thee.

4 If done beneath Thy laws,
Even servile labors shine;
Hallowed is toil, if this the cause;
The humblest work divine.

89. O send out Thy Light and Thy Truth.

1 O everlasting Light,
Giver of dawn and day,
Dispeller of the ancient night
In which creation lay!

2 O everlasting Truth,
Truest of all that's true,
Sure guide for erring age and youth,
Lead me and teach me too!

3 O everlasting Strength,
Uphold me in the way;
Bring me, in spite of foes, at length,
To joy, and light, and day!

4 O everlasting Love,
Well-spring of grace and peace;
Pour down Thy fullness from above,
Bid doubt and trouble cease!

HANDEL

1. Come to the house of prayer, O thou af - flict - ed! come;

The God of peace shall meet thee there; He makes that house His home.

- 2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.
- 3 Ye young, before His throne,
Come, bow; your voices raise;
Let not your hearts His praise disown
Who gives the power to praise.
- 4 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all;
Who seest the tear of misery,
And hear'st the mourner's call,—
- 5 Up to Thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heaven on earth be won.

92.

The Spirit saith, Come!

- 1 The Spirit in our hearts
Is ever whispering, Come!
And still the Church of God proclaims
To all His children, Come!
- 2 Let him that heareth say
To all about him, Come!
Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
To God, the fountain, come!
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
O, let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life!
The Spirit bids him come.
- 4 The Spirit, who invites,
Declares, "I quickly come;"
Lord, even so; I wait Thine hour,
O holy Spirit, Come.

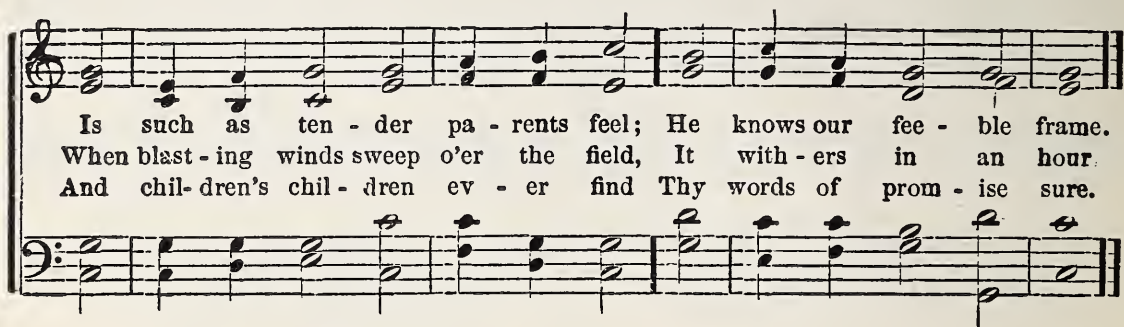

LABAN. Concluded.

Too long the darkened way we've trod, Thy truth, O Lord! send down.
One tem - ple for Thy wor - ship be; Thy Spir - it, oh, send down!
And cleanse them of their hate and strife: Thy liv - ing love send down.
In one deep o - cean of ac - cord: Thy peace, O God! send down.

United Hearts.

- 1 Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in purest love;
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne,
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes;
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

95.

Reliance.

- 1 Commit thou all thy griefs
And ways into His hands,
To His sure trust and tender care,
Who earth and heaven commands;
- 2 Who points the clouds their course,
Whom winds and seas obey;
He shall direct thy wandering feet,
He shall prepare thy way.
- 3 Then on the Lord rely,
So safe shalt thou go on;
Fix on His work thy steadfast eye,
So shall thy work be done.

L. MARSHALL

2 The world can never give
The rest for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 In Thee we end our quest;
Alone are found in Thee
The life of perfect love,—the rest
Of immortality.

5 My God, to whom I fly,
Doth all my wishes fill;
In vain the creature-streams are dry,
I have the Fountain still.

6 Stripped of my earthly friends,
I find them all in One,
And peace and joy that never ends,
And heaven, in God alone.

97.

Rest in God.

1 Thou very present aid
In suffering and distress!
The soul which still on Thee is stayed
Is kept in perfect peace.

2 The soul by faith reclined
On Thy paternal breast,
'Midst raging storms exults to find
An everlasting rest.

3 Sorrow and fear are gone
Where'er Thy face appears;
It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
And dries the widow's tears.

4 It hallows every cross,
It sweetly comforts me,
And makes me now forget my loss,
And lose myself in Thee.

98.

For a holy Heart.

1 Great Source of life and light!
Thy heavenly grace impart,
And by Thy holy Spirit write
Thy law upon my heart.

2 My soul would cleave to Thee;
Let naught my spirit move;
O, let my faith more steadfast be,
And more intense my love!

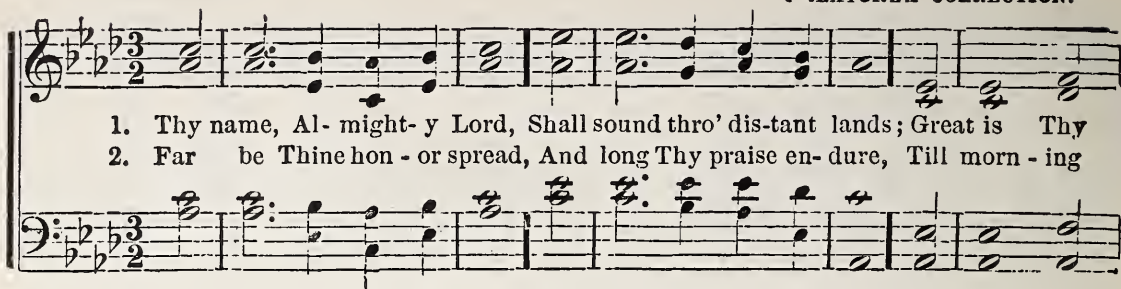

3 Long as my trials last,
Long as the cross I bear,
O, let my soul on Thee be cast
In confidence and prayer!

4 Conduct me to the shore
Of everlasting peace,
Where storm and tempest rise no more,
Where sin and sorrow cease.

Trust in God.

- 1 My spirit on Thy care,
My Father, I recline;
Thou wilt not leave me to despair,
For Thou art love divine.
- 2 In Thee I place my trust,
On Thee I calmly rest:
I know Thee good, I know Thee just,
And count Thy choice the best.
- 3 Whate'er events betide,
Thy will they all perform;
Safe in Thy breast my head I hide,
Nor fear the coming storm.
- 4 Let good or ill befall,
It must be good for me;
Secure in having Thee in all,
Of having all in Thee.

101.

Forever with the Lord.

- 1 Forever with the Lord!
So, Father, let it be;
Life from the dead is in that word,
'Tis immortality.

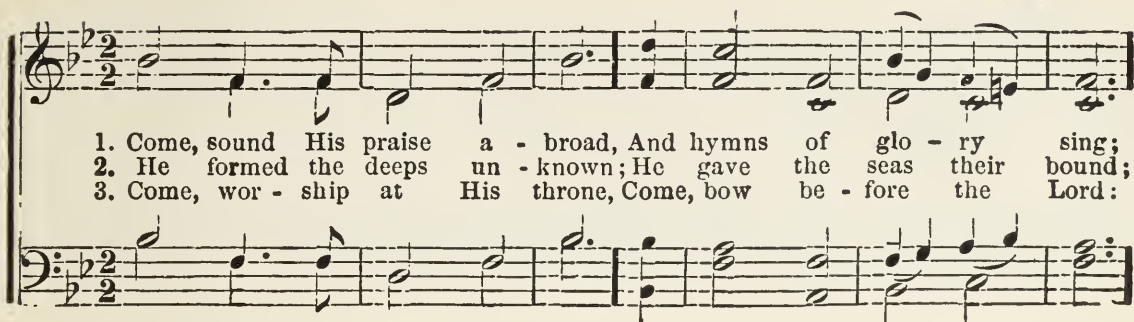

- 2 Here in the body pent,
Seeking for Thee I roam;
And nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home.
- 3 My Father's house so nigh!
Home of my soul, how clear
At times to faith's all-seeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
- 4 I hear at morn and even,
At noon and midnight hour,
The choral harmonies of heaven
Earth's Babel-tongues o'erpower.
- 5 And then I feel, that He,
Remembered or forgot,
The Lord is never far from me,
Though I perceive Him not.

- 6 Forever with the Lord!
Father, if 'tis Thy will,
The promise of that blessed word
Even here to me fulfil.

103.

Praise.

- 1 Stand up, and bless the Lord,
 Ye people of His choice;
 Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
 With heart and soul and voice.

 Let Thy bright beam arise;
 Dispel the sorrow from our minds,
 The darkness from our eyes.

 Lead us to Thine abode;
 And to our wondering view reveal
 Thy mercies, O our God!
- 3 Revive our drooping faith,
 Our doubts and fears remove,
 And kindle in our breasts the flame
 Of never-dying love.
- 4 'Tis Thine to cleanse the heart,
 To sanctify the soul,
 To pour fresh life in every part
 And new-create the whole.
- 5 Dwell, Spirit! in our hearts;
 Our minds from bondage free;

The world, before so fair;
Her holy light Religion throws,
Reflected everywhere.

3 Amid repentant tears,
We feel sweet peace within;
We know the God of mercy hears,
And pardons every sin.

4 Born of Thy Spirit, Lord,

3 Myself I cannot save;
Myself I cannot keep;
But strength in Thee I surely have,
Whose eyelids never sleep.

4 My soul to Thee alone,
For always, I commend;
Thou lovest me, Father, as Thine own.
And lovest to the end.

And shalt bid Thy hallowed dome
Yield me an eternal home.

131. God everywhere present.

1 They who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.

2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the woes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer;—
God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait
To thy Father come, and wait;
He will answer every prayer;—
God is present everywhere.

132.

Even Song.

1 Lord! a happy child of Thine,
Patient through the love of Thee,
In the light, the life divine,
Lives and walks at liberty.

2 Leaning on Thy tender care,
Thou hast led my soul aright;
Fervent was my morning prayer,
Joyful is my song to-night.

3 O my Father, Guardian true!
All my life is Thine to keep;
At Thy feet my work I do,
In Thine arms I fall asleep.

DOVEDALE. Concluded.

1. Fa - ther, we look up to Thee; Let us in Thy love a - gree;

Thou, who art the God of peace, Bid con - ten - tion ev - er cease.

2 Make us of one heart and mind,
Self-forgetful, true and kind:
Strong, yet meek in thought and word,
Like to Thee, our blessed Lord.

3 Let us for each other care,
Each the other's burden bear;
Ready, when reviled, to bless;
Studious of the law of peace.

4 Father! all our souls inspire,
Fill us with love's sacred fire;
Guided by that blessed light,
Order all our steps aright.

5 Free from anger, free from pride,
Let us thus in Thee abide;
All the depths of love express,—
All the heights of holiness.

134. He shall give His angels charge over thee.

1 They, who on the Lord rely,
Safely dwell, though danger's nigh;
Lo, His sheltering wings are spread
O'er each faithful servant's head.

2 Vain temptation's wily snare;
They shall be the Father's care:
Harmless flies the shaft by day,
Or in darkness wings its way.

3 When they wake, or when they sleep,
Angel guards their vigils keep;
Death and danger may be near,
Faith and love can never fear.

135. It is God who worketh in you.

1 Human soul, to whom are given
Holy hungerings after heaven,
Faithful to the end endure;
Make thy heavenly calling sure.

2 God, to keep thee safe from harms,
Spreads His everlasting arms,
Feeds with secret strength divine,
Waits to whisper, Thou art mine.

3 Gently will he lead the weak;
Bruised reeds he ne'er will break;
He will bless thee with His peace,
Fill with all His righteousness.

TELEMANN'S CHANT. 7s.

CH. ZEUNER.

ARR. BY DR. L. MASON.

1. Praise to God, im - mor - tal praise, For the love that crowns our days,
2. All that Spring, with boun - teous hand, Scat - ters o'er the smil - ing land;

Bounteous Source of ev - 'ry joy, Let Thy praise our tongues em - ploy.
All that lib - 'ral Au - tumn pours From her rich, o'er - flow - ing stores.

- 3 These to Thee, our God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these our souls shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.
- 4 Yes, to Thee my soul shall raise
Grateful, never-ending praise;
And, when every blessing's flown,
Love Thee for Thyself alone.

137. Praise the Lord.

- 1 All ye nations, praise the Lord;
All ye lands, your voices raise;
Heaven and earth, with loud accord,
Praise the Lord, forever praise.
- 2 For His truth and mercy stand,
Past, and present, and to be,
Like the years of His right hand,
Like His own eternity.
- 3 Praise Him, ye who know His love;
Praise Him, from the depths beneath;
Praise Him in the heights above;
Praise your Maker, all that breathe!

138. Our Heavenly Father.

- 1 Heavenly Father, God of Love!
Send Thy blessing from above;
Light and life to all impart;
Shine on each believing heart.
- 2 Kindly comfort all who mourn;
Into joy their sorrow turn;
Joy which none can take away,
Joy that shall forever stay.
- 3 Glorious in Thy sons appear;
Plant Thy heavenly kingdom here;
All Thy kingdom from above,
All the blessedness of love.
- 4 Plant in us an humble mind,
Patient, pitiful and kind;
Meek and lowly let us be,
Full of goodness, full of Thee.
- 5 Let us in our spirits prove
All the depths of lowly love;
Let us in our lives express
All the heights of holiness.

TELEMANN'S CHANT. Concluded.

1. Soft - ly now the light of day, Fades up - - on the sight a - way.
2. Thou, whose all - per - vad - ing eye Nought es - capes, with - out, with-in,

Free from care, from la - bor free, Lord, we would commune with Thee.
Par - don each in - firm - i - ty, Op - en fault, and se - cret sin.

3 When from us the light of day
Shall on earth have passed away,
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take us, Lord, to dwell with Thee.

139. Thanks for daily Mercies.

1 Tender mercies, on my way
Falling softly, like the dew,
Sent me freshly every day,
I will bless the Lord for you.

2 Though I have not all I would,
Though to greater bliss I go,
Every present gift of good
To eternal Love I owe.

3 Source of all that comforts me,
Well of joy for which I long,
Let the song I sing to Thee
Be an everlasting song.

140.

Devotion.

1 Lord, before Thy presence come,
Bow we down with holy fear;
Call our erring footsteps home,
Let us feel that Thou art near.

2 Wand'ring thoughts and languid powers
Come not where devotion kneels;
Let the soul expand her stores,
Glowing with the joy she feels.

3 At the portals of Thine house,
We resign our earth-born cares;
Nobler thoughts our souls engross,
Songs of praise and fervent prayers.

141.

The only Refuge.

1 Holy Father, heavenly King!
O'er me spread Thy guardian wing:
When by trembling fears distressed,
Let me flee to Thee and rest.

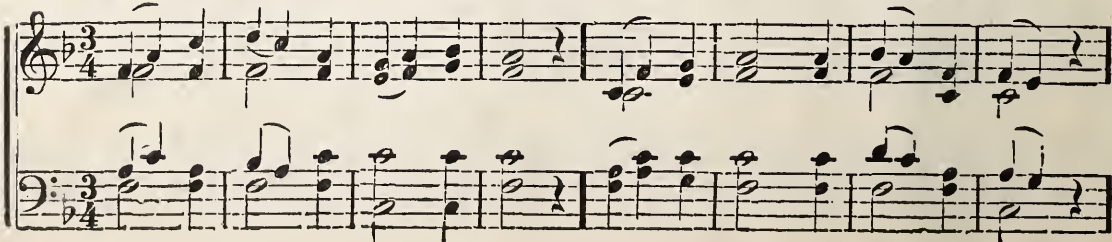

2 Call me, keep me by Thy side,
Teach me there alone to hide:
Where for safety should I flee,
If my footsteps strayed from Thee?

3 Warn me with Thy gentle voice;
Point my path, and guide my choice;
Let me, Lord, in Thee possess
Wisdom, peace, and righteousness.

143.

Come home!

- 1 Soul! celestial in thy birth,
 Dwelling yet in lowest earth,
 Panting, shrinking to be free,
 Hear God's spirit whisper thee.
- 2 Thus it saith, in accents mild,—
 "Weary wanderer, wayward child,
 From Thy Father's earnest love
 Still forever wilt thou rove?"
- 3 "Turn to hope, and peace, and light,
 Freed from sin, and earth, and night;
 I have called, entreated thee,
 In my mercies gentle, free.
- 4 "Human soul, in love divine
 I have sought to make thee mine;
 Still for thee good angels yearn;
 Human soul, return, return!"

144.

Morning Hymn.

- 1 In the morning I will pray
 For God's blessing on the day;
 What this day shall be my lot.
 Light or darkness, know I not.
- 2 Should it be with clouds o'ercast,
 Clouds of sorrow, gathering fast,
 Thou, who givest light divine,
 Shine within me, Lord, Oh, shine!
- 3 Show me, if I tempted be,
 How to find all strength in Thee,
 And a perfect triumph win
 Over every bosom sin.
- 4 Keep my feet from secret snares,
 Keep mine eyes, O God, from tears!
 Every step Thy love attend,
 And my soul from death defend.

WATCHMAN. 7s. Double.

DR. L. MASON.

1. Watchman, tell us of the night, What its signs of promise are. Trav'ler, o'er yon mountain s height, See the glo - ry-beaming star. Watchman, does its beauteous ray Aught of hope or joy fore-tell? Trav'ler, yes, it brings the day—Promised day of Is-ra-el

2 Watchman, tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends,
Trav'ler, blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends.
Watchman, will its beams, alone,
Gild the spot that gave them birth?
Trav'ler, ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth.

3 Watchman, tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn.
Trav'ler, darkness takes its flight:
Doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watchman, let thy wandering cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home.
Trav'ler, lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God is come.

Andante. cres. p

1. Quiet, Lord, my froward heart; Make me loving, meek and mild, Upright, simple, free from art,
[Make me as a little child, Make me as a little child; From distrust and envy free; Pleased with all that pleaseth [Thee.]

- 2 What Thou shalt to-day provide,
Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to Thy wisdom leave; : ||
'Tis enough that Thou wilt care;
Why should I the burden bear?
- 3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own,
Knows beneath his father's eyes
He is never left alone; : ||
So would I with Thee abide,
Thou, my Father, Guard, and Guide!

148.

The Pilgrim's Prayer.

- 1 Lead us with Thy gentle sway,
As a willing child is led;
Speed us on our upward way,
As a pilgrim, Lord, is sped, : ||
Who with prayers and helps divine
Seeks a consecrated shrine.
- 2 Lead us, Father! Thou dost know
All the way; but, wanderers, we Often miss our way below,
And stretch out our hands to Thee; : ||
Guide us, save us, and prepare
Our appointed mansion there!

149. CHANT. Thy Will be done.

DR. L. MASON.

- 1 Thy will be done. In devious way
The hurrying stream of life may run;
Yet still our grateful hearts shall say, |
Thy will be done.

- 2 Thy will be done. If o'er us shine
A gladdening and a prosperous sun,

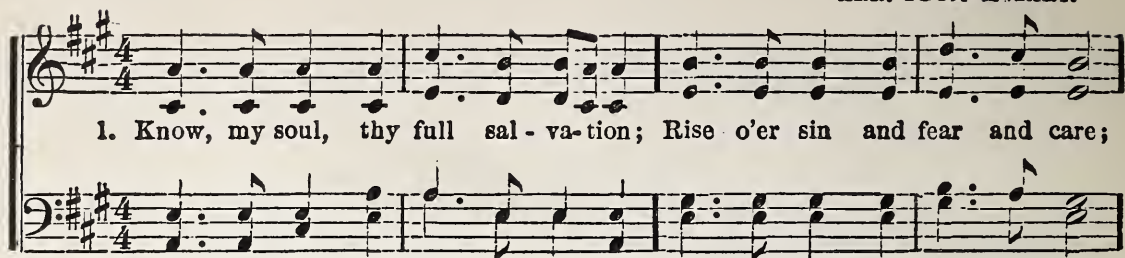

This prayer shall make it more divine, — |
Thy will be done.

- 3 Thy will be done. Though shrouded o'er
Our path with gloom, | —one comfort,
one,
Is ours, —to breathe, while we adore, |
Thy will be done!

ARR. FROM MOZART

1. Know, my soul, thy full sal - va - tion; Rise o'er sin and fear and care;

Joy to find, in ev - 'ry sta - tion, Something still to do or bear.
Think what Je - sus did to win thee, Child of heav'n, canst thou re - pine?

Think what spir - it dwells with - in thee, Think what Fa - ther's smiles are thine;

2 Go, then, earthly fame and treasure;
Come, disaster, scorn and pain!
In Thy service pain is pleasure,
With Thy favor loss is gain.
I have learned to call Thee Father,
I have fixed my heart on thee; [gather,
Storms may howl, and clouds may
All must work for good to me.

3 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Thou canst give me sweetest rest.
O, 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me;
O, 'twere not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmixed with Thee!

151. The Fruit of the Spirit is Joy and Peace.

1 Holy Spirit, source of gladness!
Come with all Thy radiance bright;
O'er our weariness and sadness
Breathe Thy life, and shed Thy light!
Send us Thine illumination,
Banish all our fears at length;
Rest upon this congregation,
Spirit of unfailing Strength!

2 Let that love, which knows no measure,
Now in quickening showers descend
Bringing us the richest treasure
Man can wish or God can send;
Hear our earnest supplication;
Every struggling heart release;
Rest upon this congregation,
Spirit of untroubled Peace.

152.

Vesper Hymn.

1 Now, on land and sea descending,
Brings the night its peace profound;
Let our vesper hymn be blending
With the holy calm around.
Soon as dies the sunset glory,
Stars of heaven shine out above,
Telling still the ancient story,
Their Creator's changeless love.

2 Now, our wants and burdens leaving
To His care, who cares for all,
Cease we fearing, cease we grieving;
At His touch our burdens fall.
As the darkness deepens o'er us,
Lo, eternal stars arise;
Hope and Faith and Love rise glorious,
Shining in the spirit's skies.

SPANISH MELODY

1. Ho - ly Fa - ther, Thou hast taught me I should live to Thee a - lone;

Year by year, Thy hand hath brought me On thro' dan - gers oft un - known.
Still Thine arm has been a - round me, And my paths were in Thy sight.

When I wan - dered, Thou hast found me; When I doubted, sent me light;

2 I would trust in Thy protecting,
Wholly rest upon Thine arm,
Follow wholly Thy directing,
Thou mine only guard from harm!
Keep me from mine own undoing,
Help me turn to Thee when tried,
Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at Thy side!

3 Lord, that word abideth ever;
Revelation is not sealed;
Answering unto man's endeavor,
Truth and Right are still revealed.
That which came to ancient sages,
Greek, Barbarian, Roman, Jew,
Written in the heart's deep pages,
Shines to-day, forever new!

154. The Word of the Lord abideth forever.

1 God of ages and of nations!
Every race, and every time,
Hath received Thine inspirations,
Glimpses of Thy truth sublime.
Ever spirits, in rapt vision,
Passed the heavenly veil within,
Ever hearts, bowed in contrition,
Found salvation from their sin.

2 Reason's noble aspiration,
Truth in growing, clearness saw;
Conscience spoke its condemnation,
Or proclaimed the Eternal law.
While Thine inward revelations [heard,
Told Thy saints their prayers were
Prophets to the guilty nations
Spoke Thine everlasting word.

155. God is Love and Love alone.

1 Lord and Father, great and holy!
Fearing naught, we come to Thee,
Fearing naught, though weak and lowly,
For Thy love has made us free.
By the blue sky bending o'er us,
By the green earth's flowery zone,
Teach us, Lord, the angel chorus,
"Thou art Love and Love alone."

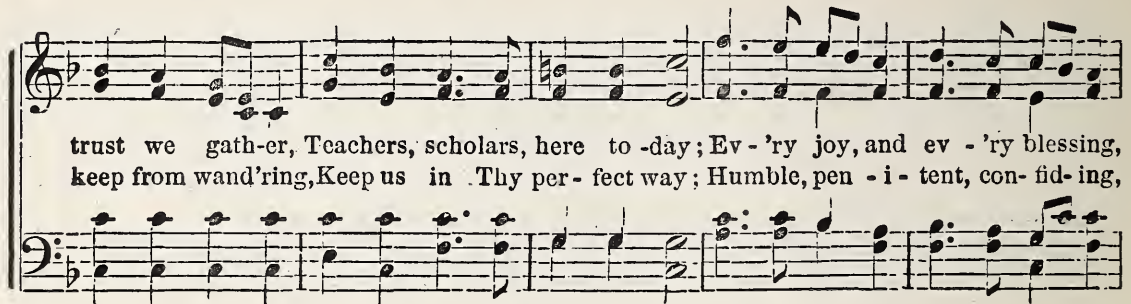

2 Tho' the worlds in flame should perish,
Suns and stars in ruin fall,
Trust in Thee our hearts should cherish,
Thou to us be all in all.
And tho' heavens Thy Name are praising,
Seraphs hymn no sweeter tone,
Than the strain our hearts are raising,
"Thou art Love and Love alone."

52 156. BLESSING. 8s & 7s. Double.

1. Gracious God, our heav'nly Father! Meet and bless our school, we pray; As in humble
2. Weak, im-per-fect, tempted, err-ing, From Thy precepts, Lord, we stray; Let Thy spir-it trust we gath-er, Teachers, scholars, here to-day; Ev-'ry joy, and ev-'ry blessing, keep from wand'ring, Keep us in Thy per-fect way; Humble, pen-i-tent, con-fid-ing,

From Thy bounteous hand we own; May Thy love, our souls possessing, Draw us near-er to Thy throne.
May we rest our hope in Thee: In Thy fa-vor, Lord, a-bid-ing, In Thy peace and pu-ri-ty.

1 Father, lead us with Thy power
Safe into the promised rest;
Hide our souls within Thy shelter,
In Thine arms securely blest.

2 Feed us with the heavenly manna,
Bread of angel-life above;
Send us from the holy fountain
Draughts of everlasting love.

3 In Thy presence we are happy,
In Thy presence we're secure;
In Thy presence all afflictions
We can patiently endure.

4 In Thy presence we can conquer,
We can suffer, we can die;
Far from Thee, we faint and languish;
Fount of blessing! keep us nigh.

 From the dross of guilt refined:
 Blessings all around bestowing,
 God withholds His care from none;
 Grace and mercy ever flowing
 From the fountain of His throne.

159. The Peace of God.

- 1 Peace of God, which knows no measure,
 Heavenly sunlight of the soul,
 Peace beyond all earthly treasure,
 Come, and all our hearts control!
 Come, almighty to deliver!
 Naught shall make us then afraid;
 We will trust in Thee forever,
 Thou on whom our hope is stayed!

160. Heavenly Shepherd.

- 1 Heavenly Shepherd, guide us, feed us,
 Through our pilgrimage below,
 And beside the waters lead us,
 Where Thy flock rejoicing go.
- 2 Lord, Thy guardian presence ever,
 Meekly bending, we implore;
 We have found Thee, and would never,
 Never wander from Thee more.

161.

 God, our Maker, loveth best;
 Such the worship that upraises
 Human hearts to heavenly rest.

162.

Love Divine.

- 1 Love Divine, all love excelling,
 Joy of heaven, to earth come down!
 Fix in us Thy humble dwelling,
 All Thy faithful mercies crown!
 Father! Thou art all compassion,
 Pure, unbounded love Thou art;
 Visit us with Thy salvation,
 Enter every longing heart.

164. Psalm of Life.

- 1 Tell me not, in mournful numbers,
Life is but an empty dream;
For the soul is dead that slumbers,
And things are not what they seem.
- 2 Life is real! life is earnest!
And the grave is not its goal;
Dust thou art, to dust returnest,
Was not spoken of the soul.
- 3 Not enjoyment, and not sorrow,
Is our destined end and way;
But to act, that each to-morrow
Finds us further than to-day.
- 4 Lives of true men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

165. Redeeming Love.

- 1 Father, source of every blessing,
Tune my heart to grateful lays!
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for ceaseless songs of praise.
- 2 Teach me some melodious measure,
Sung by raptured saints above;
Fill my soul with sacred pleasure,
While I sing redeeming love.
- 3 Thou didst seek me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold above;
Thou, to save my soul from danger,
Didst redeem me with Thy love.
- 4 By Thy hand restored, defended,
Safe through life thus far I've come;
Safe, O Lord, when life is ended,
Bring me to my heavenly home.

- 2 Thou, our little ones receiving,
Fold them in Thy gracious arm;
There, we know,—Thy word believing,—
Only there, secure from harm.
- 3 Never, from Thy pasture roving,
Let them be to sin a prey;
Let Thy tenderness, so loving,
Keep them in life's doubtful way;

Life's Work.

- 1 All around us, fair with flowers,
Fields of beauty sleeping lie;
All around us clarion voices
Call to duty stern and high.
- 2 Thankfully we will rejoice in
All the beauty God has given;
But beware it does not win us
From the work ordained of Heaven.
- 3 Following every voice of mercy,
With a trusting, loving heart;
Let us in life's earnest labor
Still be sure to do our part.

- 4 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,
Let us work with all our might,
Lest the wretched faint and perish
In the coming stormy night.

What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayst smile at all thy foes.

Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove.

All unmoved by its commotion,
Lie the promises of God.

- 3 We are anchored firmly to them;
Though in tatters hang our shrouds,
Calmly we look up, and through them
View the thunder-riven clouds.
- 4 This our constant heart consoleth,
And we will not be afraid;—
God, our heavenly Father, ruleth,
All our hope on Him is stayed.

172. Go in Peace.

- 1 Go in peace! serene dismissal
To the loving heart made known,
When it pours in deep contrition
Prayer before the eternal Throne.
- 2 Go in peace! thy sins forgiven,
God hath healed thee, set thee free;
Every spirit-fetter riven,
Go in peace, and liberty!
- 3 Father! breathe this benediction
O'er our spirits while we pray;
Let us part in sweet conviction
Thou hast blessed our souls to-day.

MENDELSSOHN.

1. Quiet as a peaceful river,
Quiet as the wind-hushed seas,
In the Eternal trusting ever,
We are kept in perfect peace.

2. Deep beneath the warring ocean,
Deep beneath the howling flood,
All unmoved by its commotion,
Lie the promises of God.

1. Call the Lord thy sure sal - va - tion, Rest be - neath th' Al - mighty's shade;
 2. There no tu - mult can a - larm thee, Thou shalt dread no hid - den snare,
 3. There, tho' winds and waves are swell - ing, God, thy hope, shall bear thro' all;

In His se - cret hab - i - ta - tion Dwell, nor ev - er be dismayed!
 Guile nor vi - o - lence shall harm thee, In e - ter - nal safe - guard there.
 Plague shall not come nigh thy dwell - ing, Thee no e - vil shall be - fall.

 Watch and ward o'er thee to keep,
 Though thou walk thro' hostile regions,
 Though in desert wilds thou sleep.
- 5 Since, with pure and firm affection,
 Thou on God hast set thy love,
 With the wing of His protection
 He shall shield thee from above.

174. The Prayer of Life.

- 1 Father, hear the prayer we offer:
 Not for ease that prayer shall be;
 But for strength, that we may ever
 Live our lives courageously.
- 2 Not forever in green pastures
 Do we ask our way to be;
 But the steep and rugged pathway
 May we tread rejoicingly.
- 3 Not forever by still waters
 Would we idly quiet stay;
 But would smite the living fountains
 From the rocks along our way.

- 4 Be our strength in hours of weakness;
 In our wanderings, be our guide;
 Through endeavor, failure, danger,
 Father, be Thou at our side!

175. God is Truth and Love.

- 1 God is love; His mercy brightens
 All the path in which we move;
 Bliss He wakes, and woe He lightens.
 God is wisdom, God is love.
- 2 Chance and change are busy ever;
 Man decays, and ages move;
 But His mercy waneth never;
 God is wisdom, God is love.
- 3 E'en the hour that darkest seemeth
 Will His changeless goodness prove;
 From the gloom His brightness stream-

Dismission.

1 Lord! dismiss us with Thy blessing,
Hope and comfort from above;
Let us each, Thy peace possessing,
Triumph in redeeming love:
Still support us
While in duty's path we move.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
For the gospel's joyful sound;
May the fruits of Thy salvation
In our hearts and lives abound;
May Thy presence
With us evermore be found!

God the Pilgrim's Friend.

1 Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through a weary land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand:
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open now the living fountain
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliv'rer,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.

3 Where I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside:
Bear me through the swelling current;
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to Thee.

182. Doing all for God.

- 1 Shine on our souls, Eternal God,
With rays of beauty shine;
O, let Thy favor crown our days,

With Thee each day be spent,
For Thee each fleeting hour improved,
Since each by Thee is lent.

And while the world our hands employs,
Our hearts be Thine alone.

183. For God's Presence.

Would lift themselves in prayer,
Drive from our souls each earthly tho't,
And show Thy presence there.
- 2 Each moment of our lives renews
The mercies of the Lord;
Each moment is itself a gift
To bear us on to God.
- 3 Help us to break the galling chains
This world has round us thrown;
Each passion of our hearts subdue,
Each cherished sin disown.
- 4 O Father! kindle in our souls
A never-dying flame

But who like Thee can rise
Above this toilsome, sordid scene,
Beyond the holy skies?

3 Meek is Thine eye and soft Thy voice;
But wondrous is Thy might
To make the wretched soul rejoice,
To give the simple light.

- 1 Wisdom has treasures greater far
 Than east or west unfold;
 And her rewards more precious are
 Than is the gain of gold.
- 2 In her right hand she holds to view
 A length of happy years;
 And in her left the prize of fame

 And Thou hast bidden us dare:
 We look, we seek,—and Thou art pleased
 To meet us everywhere.
- 3 The Spirit's fulness we embrace;
 Away with man's poor dole!
 The sweetest visit of Thy grace
 Asks but an open soul.
- 4 Full feels our solemn privacy,
 The calm, celestial air;
 In humble joy we lay on Thee
 The loving clasp of prayer.

1 We ask not, Father, the repose
 Which comes from outward rest,
 If we may have through all life's woes
 Thy peace within our breast;—

2 That peace which suffers and is strong,
 Trusts where it cannot see,
 Deems not the trial way too long,
 But leaves the end with Thee;—

3 That peace which through the billows'
 And angry tempests' roar, [moan,
 Sends forth its calm, unfaltering tone
 Of joy forevermore;—

4 That peace which flows serene and deep,
 A river in the soul,
 Whose banks a living verdure keep;
 God's sunshine o'er the whole.

211. The Heavens declare the Glory of God.

- 1 Father, how wide Thy glory shines,
 How high Thy wonders rise!
 Know: thro' the earth by thousand signs,
 By thousands through the skies.
 2 Those mighty orbs proclaim Thy power;
 Their motions speak Thy skill:
 And, on the wings of every hour
 We read Thy patience still.
 3 Oh, may I bear some humble part
 In the immortal song!
 Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
 And love command my tongue.

212. Early will I seek Thee.

- 1 Early, my God! without delay,
 I haste to seek Thy face;
 My thirsty spirit faints away,
 Without Thy cheering grace.
 2 So pilgrims on the scorching sand,
 Beneath a burning sky,
 Long for a cooling stream at hand;
 And they must drink or die.

- 3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
 Can my best passions move,
 Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
 As Thy forgiving love.
 4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
 I'll bless my God and King;
 Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
 And tune my lips to sing.

213.

Te Deum.

- 1 O God! we praise Thee, and confess
 That Thou, the only Lord
 And everlasting Father, art,
 By all the earth adored.
 2 To Thee all angels cry aloud;
 To Thee the powers on high,
 Both cherubim and seraphim,
 Continually do cry.
 3 O holy, holy, holy Lord,
 Whom heavenly hosts obey,
 The world is with the glory filled
 Of Thy majestic sway.

ENGLISH.

OLIVER HOLDEY.

- 2 As the clear air surrounds the earth,
Thy grace around me roll;
As the fresh light pervades the air,
So pierce and fill my soul.
- 3 As, from the clouds, drops down in love
The precious summer rain,
So, from Thyself, pour down the flood
That freshens all again.
- 4 Thus life within our lifeless hearts
Shall make its glad abode:
And we shall shine in beauteous light,
Filled with the light of God.

215. For Perfect Holiness.

- 1 Father, Thine all-victorious love
Shed in my heart abroad:
Then shall my feet no longer rove,
Rooted and fixed in God.
- 2 I hold Thee with a trembling hand:
I will not let Thee go,
Till steadfastly by faith I stand,
And all Thy goodness know.
- 3 When shall I see the welcome hour
When God shall reign in me,—
Spirit of health, and life, and power,
And perfect liberty?

- 4 O that in me the sacred fire
Might now begin to glow;
Burn up the dross of base desire,
And make the mountains flow!

216.

The call to Duty.

- 1 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 2 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Shall sloth and faintness win Thy peace,
O Thou, the martyr's God?
- 3 The fearless heart Thou wilt sustain,
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.
- 4 The saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.
- 5 When Thy illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine.

The Hour of Prayer.

- 1 Thou Lord of life! whose tender care
 Hath led us on till now,
 We in this quiet hour of prayer
 Before Thy presence bow.
- 2 Thou, blessed God! hast been our Guide,
 Through life our Guard and Friend;
 O, still, on life's uncertain tide,
 Preserve us to the end!
- 3 To Thee our grateful praise we bring,
 For mercies day by day:
 Lord, teach our hearts Thy praise to sing,
 Lord, teach us how to pray!

219.

All my springs are in Thee.

- 1 My heart is resting, O my God!
 I will give thanks and sing;
 My heart is at the sacred Source
 Of every precious thing.
- 2 I thirst for springs of heavenly life,
 And here all day they rise;
 I seek the treasure of Thy love,
 And close at hand it lies.
- 3 Glory to Thee for strength withheld,
 For want and weakness known,—
 The fear that sends me to Thy breast
 For what is most mine own.
- 4 Mine be the reverent listening love
 That waits all day on Thee;
 The service of a watchful heart
 Which no one else can see;
- 5 The faith that, in a hidden way
 No other eye may know,
 Finds all its daily work prepared,
 And loves to have it so.
- 6 My heart is resting, O my God!
 My heart is in Thy care;
 I hear the voice of joy and praise
 Resounding everywhere.

The Divine Spirit.

- 1 Spirit divine! attend our prayer,
And make our hearts Thy home;
Descend with all Thy gracious power;
Come, holy Spirit, come!
- 2 Come as the light; to waiting minds
That long the truth to know,
Reveal the narrow path of right,
The way of duty show.
- 3 Come as the fire; enkindle now
The sacrificial flame,
Till our whole souls an offering be,
In love's redeeming name.
- 4 Come as the dew; on hearts that pine
Descend in this still hour,
Till every barren place shall own
With joy Thy quickening power.
- 5 Come as the wind; sweep clean away
What dead within us lies,
And search and freshen all our souls
With living energies.

The brightest creatures boast;
And all their grandeur and their praise

True science is to read Thy name;
True life, to obey Thy will.

And, following on, pursue,
Till visions of eternal day
Fix and complete the view.

3 And Thou my evening: let me rest,
When life declines, in Thee;
As sinks the sun into the west,
Thou wilt my guardian be.

For those who from Him rove,
And calls of mercy reach their hearts,
To teach them God is love.

Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
Shall shout that God is love!

While here on earth we rove;
Speak to our hearts, and let us feel
The kindlings of Thy love.

All toil and time and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If Thou art present there.
- 3 Here then, our God, be pleased to stay,
And bid our hearts rejoice;
Our bounding hearts shall own Thy sway.
And echo to Thy voice.

4 Order my footsteps by Thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.

240. For inward Peace.

- 1 O for a heart of calm repose
Amid the world's loud roar,
A life that like a river flows
Along a peaceful shore!
- 2 Come, Holy Spirit, still my heart
With gentleness divine;
Indwelling peace Thou canst impart,
O, make that blessing mine!
- 3 Above these scenes of storm and strife
There spreads a region fair;
Give me to live that higher life,
And breathe that heavenly air!

4 Come, Holy Spirit, breathe that peace!
That victory make me win!
Then shall my soul her conflict cease,
And find a heaven within.

241. The Wanderer's Return.

- 1 Return, O wanderer, return,
And seek Thy Father's face;
These new desires which in thee burn
Were kindled by His grace.
- 2 Return, O wanderer, return;
He hears Thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Repentant wanderer, return,
And wipe the falling tear;
Take up thy cross, and grateful learn
How soon He can forbear.
- 4 Repentant wanderer, return.
And wipe the falling tear:
Thy Father calls,—no longer mourn;
'Tis love invites thee near!

 Thy presence fills my room.
 The little stars bring tidings
 Of kindness from above:
 I love Thee, O my Father,
 And feel that Thou art love.

251. Thine is the Glory forever.

1 To Thee, the Lord almighty,
 Our noblest praise we give,
 Who all things hast created,
 And blestest all that live;
 Whose goodness, never-failing
 Through countless ages gone,
 Forever and forever
 Shall still keep shining on.

PEACE. Concluded.

While in the con - fi - dence of prayer Our hearts draw near to Thee!
 Which by the dis - ci - pline of life, Would draw us un - to Thee.
 And then will death, when - e'er it come, But draw us near - er Thee.

- 2 That such as these have trod the world's steep path,
Wrestling from sin its strength, from wrong its throne,
In every age and clime the leaders true
By whom the way of life to man is shown,—
- 3 We, with our spirits waked to higher aims,
Would thank Thee, holy Father of our souls,
Taking to heart the prophecy of might,
That from their burning deeds forever rolls.
- 4 We too, like them, O God! would work with Thee,
And consecrate our lives to guard the right;
For thus alone can we, Thy children, be Worthy this priceless heritage of light.
- 5 O, lead us, Father! break all bonds that keep
Our souls from heeding Thee, and only Thee;
Teach us, that they who serve the living Truth
Hallow all time, and move eternity.

253.

God is Spirit.

- 1 O God, O Spirit, Light of all that live!
Who dost on them that sit in darkness shine,
The darkness ever with the light doth strive,
Yet pour on us again Thy beams divine.
- 2 O Breath from out the Eternal Silence! blow
Softly upon our spirits' barren ground;
The precious fulness of our God bestow,
That fruits of faith, love, reverence may abound.
- 3 O Fountain! that dost unexhausted flow
To quench the thirst that seeks Thy waters clear,
O God, O Spirit, Life of life! flow now
Into the quiet hearts which seek Thee here.

REPOSE.

C. H. RINCK.

1. Gently evening bendeth, Over vale and hill; Softly peace descendeth, And the world is still.

- 2 Save the wood-brook's gushing,
All things silent rest;
Hear its restless rushing,
On, tow'rd's ocean's breast.
- 3 And no evening bringeth,
To its life, release;

- And no sweet bell ringeth
O'er its wavelets, peace.
- 4 Restless, thus life floweth,
Striveth in my breast;
God alone bestoweth
Tranquil evening rest.

263. Self-Renunciation.

- 1 O Lord! how happy should we be,
If we could leave our cares to Thee,
If we from self could rest,
And feel at heart that One above,
In perfect wisdom, perfect love,
Is working for the best.
- 2 For when we kneel and cast our care
Upon our God in humble prayer,
With strengthened souls we rise;
Sure that our Father, who is nigh
To hear the ravens when they cry,
Will hear His children's cries.
- 3 O, may these trustless hearts of ours
The lesson learn from birds and flow'rs,
And learn from self to cease,—
Leave all things to our Father's will,
And, on His mercy, leaning still,
Find, in each trial, peace!

264. Praise for God's Love.

- 1 My God, Thy boundless love I praise:
How bright on high its glories blaze!
How sweetly bloom below!
It streams from Thine eternal throne;
Through heaven its joys for ever run,
And o'er the earth they flow.
- 2 But in Thy word I see it shine
With grace and glories more divine,
Proclaiming sins forgiven; [way
There Faith, bright cherub, points the
To realms of everlasting day,
And opens all her heaven.
- 3 Then let the love that makes me blessed
With cheerful praise inspire my breast,
And ardent gratitude;
And all my thoughts and passions tend
To Thee, my Father and my Friend,
My soul's eternal good.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY J. H. MCNAUGHTON.

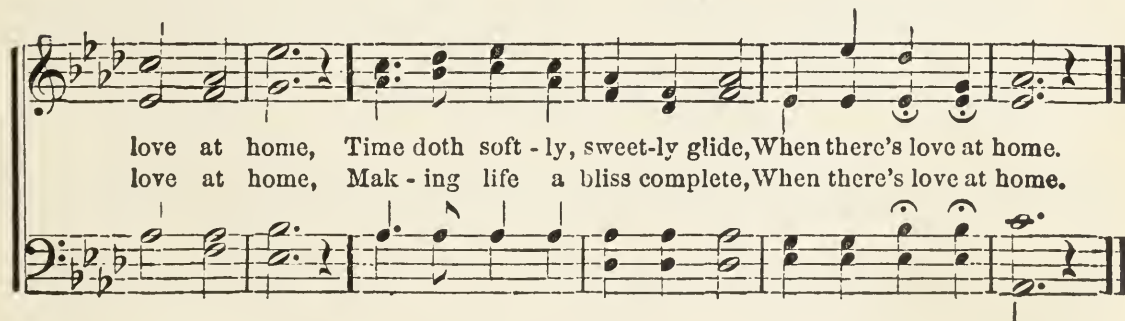

1. There is beauty all around, When there's love at home; There is joy in ev'-ry sound,
2. In the cottage there is joy, When there's love at home; Hate and en-vy ne'er an-joy,

When there's love at home. Peace and plenty here a-bide, Smiling sweet on ev'-ry side,
When there's love at home. Ro-ses blossom 'neath our feet, All the earth's a garden sweet,

Time doth soft-ly, sweet-ly glide, When there's love at home. Love at home,
Mak-ing life a bliss complete, When there's love at home. Love at home, love at home, Time doth soft-ly, sweet-ly glide, When there's love at home.

love at home, Mak-ing life a bliss complete, When there's love at home.

3 Kindly heaven smiles above,
When there's love at home;
All the earth is filled with love,
When there's love at home.
Sweeter sings the brooklet by,
Brighter beams the azure sky;
Oh, there's One who smiles on high,
When there's love at home.

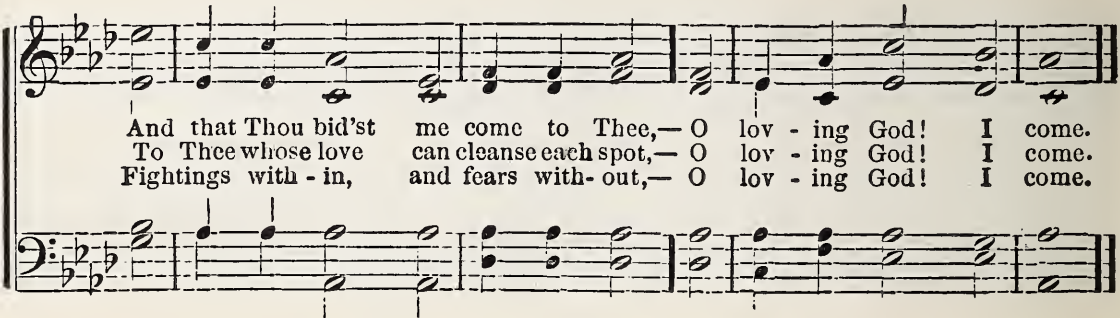

4 Father, show Thy mercy mine,
Then there's love at home;
Sweetly whisper, I am Thine,
Then there's love at home.
Source of love, Thy cheering light
Far exceeds the sun so bright—
Can dispel the gloom of night;
Then there's love at home.

1. Just as I am,—with- out one plea But that Thy love is seek- ing me,
 2. Just as I am,—and wait- ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot,
 3. Just as I am,—tho' toss'd a- bout With many a con- flict, many a doubt,

And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee,— O lov - ing God! I come.
 To Thee whose love can cleanse each spot,— O lov - ing God! I come.
 Fightings with - in, and fears with- out,— O lov - ing God! I come.

4 Just as I am;—Thou wilt receive,
 Wilt welcome, pardon, heal, relieve.
 Because Thy promise I believe,—
 O loving God! I come.

3 If Thou shouldst call me to resign
 What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine,—
 I only yield Thee what is Thine;
 "Thy will, my God, be done!"

276. Thy Will be done.

1 My God, my Father, while I stray
 Far from my home on life's rough way,
 O teach me from my heart to say,
 "Thy will, my God, be done!"

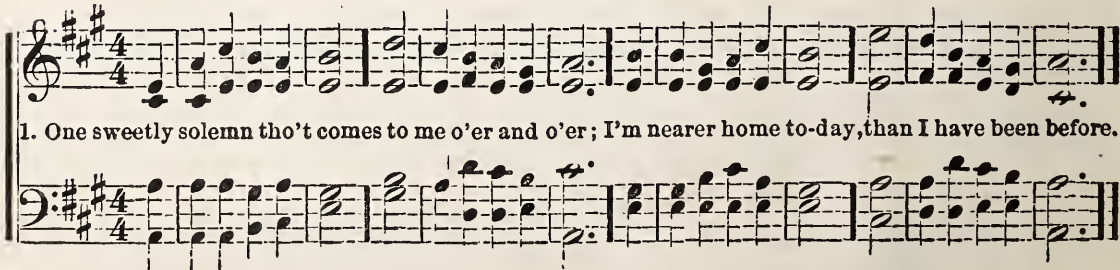

4 If but my fainting heart be blest,
 With Thy sweet spirit for its guest,
 O God! to Thee I leave the rest;
 "Thy will, my God, be done!"

2 Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
 Let me be still, and murmur not,
 But breathe the prayer divinely taught,
 "Thy will, my God, be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day,
 Blend it with Thine, and take away
 Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
 "Thy will, my God, be done!"

284. WORK, FOR THE NIGHT IS COMING. 99

DR. LOWELL MASON.

1. Work, for the night is coming, Work thro' the morning hours : Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work, for the night is com- ing,

Work 'mid springing flow'rs; Work, when the day grows brighter, Work in the glowing sun;
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,—
Rest comes sure and soon :
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for the daylight flies;

Work, till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work, while the night is dark'ning,
When man's work is o'er.

4 Work, for the night is coming,
Work, while the fields are white;
Work, for thy sands are running,
Work, while hopes are bright;
Gather thy sheaves at morning;
Rest not thy hand at noon;
Labor and strive till evening;
Rest when daylight's gone.

REV. R. LOWMY.

1. Shall we gather at the river, Where bright angel feet have trod, With its crystal tide forever

Chorus. p

Flowing by the throne of God. Yes, we'll gather at the river, The beautiful, the beautiful river, Gather with the saints at the river That flows by the throne of God.

2 On the margin of the river,
Washing up its silver spray,
We will walk and worship ever,
All the happy, golden day.
Yes, we'll gather, etc.

3 Ere we reach the shining river,
Lay we every burden down;

Grace our spirits will deliver,
And provide a robe and crown.
Yes, we'll gather, etc.

4 Soon we'll reach the silver river,
Soon our pilgrimage will cease;
Soon our happy hearts will quiver
With the melody of peace
Yes, we'll gather, etc.

2. { God's word a - bove all earth - ly pow'rs, No thanks to them, a - bid - eth; }

ARR. BY DR L. MASON.

1. { Now to heav'n our pray'r ascending, God speed the right; } Be our zeal in heav'n recorded,
In a no-ble cause contending, God speed the right; }

With suc-cess on earth re-ward-ed, God speed the right, God speed the right.

2 Be that prayer again repeated,—
God speed the right;
Ne'er despairing, though defeated,
God speed the right.
Like the good and great in story,
If we fail, we fail with glory :
God speed the right.

3 Patient, firm, and persevering,
God speed the right;
Ne'er the event nor danger fearing,
God speed the right.

Pains nor toils nor trials heeding,
And in heaven's time succeeding,—
God speed the right.

4 Still our onward course pursuing,
God speed the right;
Every foe at length subduing,
God speed the right.
Truth our cause, whate'er delay it,
There's no power on earth can stay it.

104 291. SWEET HOUR OF PRAYER. WM. B. BRADBURY.

1. Sweet hour of pray'r, sweet hour of pray'r! That calls me from a world of care,

And bids me at my Fa-ther's throne Make all my wants and wish-es known.
 d. c. And oft escaped the tempt-er's snare By thy re-turn, sweet hour of pray'r.

In sea-sons of dis-tress and grief, My soul has oft-en found re-lief,

2 Sweet hour of pray'r! sweet hour of pray'r!
 Thy wings shall my petition bear
 To Him, whose truth and faithfulness
 Engage the waiting soul to bless;
 And since He bids me seek His face,
 Believe His word, and trust His grace,
 I'll cast on Him my every care,
 And wait for thee, sweet hour of pray'r.

3 Sweet hour of pray'r! sweet hour of pray'r!
 May I thy consolation share,
 Till, from Mount Pisgah's lofty height,
 I view my home, and take my flight:
 This robe of flesh I'll drop, and rise
 To seize the everlasting prize,
 And shout, while passing thro' the air,
 Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of pray'r.

Invocation.

1 Come, Thou almighty King!
Help us Thy name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Father all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

2 Come, Thou eternal Word,
By heaven and earth adored,
Our prayer attend!
Come and this people bless;
Give to Thy truth success;
Spirit of Holiness,
On us descend!

3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour!
Thou who almighty art,
Rule now in every heart,
Never from us depart,
Spirit of Power!

296.

Strength, Love, and Light

1 Come, Thou almighty Will!
Our fainting bosoms fill
With Thy great power:
Strength of our good intents,
Our tempted hour's defence,
Calm of faith's confidence,
Come, in this hour!

2 Come, Thou most tender Love!
Within our spirits move,
Their sweetest guest:
Extinguish passion's fire,
Exalt each low desire,
To deeds of love inspire,
Quickener and Rest!

3 Come, Light serene and still!
Our darkened spirits fill
With Thy clear day;
Guide of the feeble sight,
Star of grief's darkest night,
Reveal the path of right,
Show us Thy way!

299. Who by searching can find out God?

- 1 I cannot find Thee! still on restless pinion
My spirit beats the void where Thou dost dwell;
I wander lost thro' all Thy vast dominion,
And shrink beneath Thy Light ineffable.
- 2 I cannot find Thee! even when most adoring
Before Thy shrine I bend in lowliest prayer;
Beyond these bounds of tho't, my tho't
upsoaring,
From furthest quest comes back; Thou art
not there.

- 3 Yet high above the limits of my seeing,
And folded far within the inmost heart,
And deep below the deeps of conscious being,
Thy splendor shineth; there, O God! Thou art.
- 4 I cannot lose Thee! still in Thee abiding
The End is clear, how wide soe'er I roam;
The Law that holds the worlds my steps is guiding,
And I must rest at last in Thee, my home.

110 302. I LOVE THEM THAT LOVE ME.

FROM "HARP OF JUDAH."

L. O. EMERSON.

I love them that love me, And they that seek me ear - ly shall find me, And they that seek me ear - ly shall find me. I love them that love me, And they that seek me ear - ly shall find me. Riches and honor are with me, yea, durable riches, and righteousness;

The path of the just is as the shin - ing light, That shin - eth more and more un - to the per - fect day, Un - to the per - fect day.

1. Should auld acquaintance be for-got, And nev-er bro't to mind; Should auld acquaintance
To sing the songs our be forgot, and songs of auld lang syne. For auld lang syne we meet to-night, For auld lang syne, fathers sang in days of auld lang syne.

2 We've passed through many varied scenes,
Since youth's unclouded day;
And friends, and hopes, and happy dreams
Time's hand hath swept away;
And voices that once joined with ours,
In days of auld lang syne,
Are silent now, and blend no more
In songs of auld lang syne.

3 Yet ever has the light of song
Illumed our darkest hours;
And cheered us on life's toilsome way,
And gemmed our path with flowers:
The sacred songs our fathers sang,
Dear songs of auld lang syne;
The hallowed songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne.

4 Here we have met, here we may part,
To meet on earth no more;
And we may never sing again
The cherished songs of yore;
The sacred songs our fathers sang,
In days of auld lang syne;
We may not meet to sing again
The songs of auld lang syne.

5 But when we've crossed the sea of life,
And reached the heavenly shore,
We'll sing the songs our fathers sing,
Transcending those of yore:
We'll meet to sing diviner strains
Than those of auld lang syne;
Immortal songs of praise, unknown
In days of auld lang syne.

304. CHANT. God be merciful.

7 God | sha'l— | bless us; || And all the ends of the | earth shall | fear— | Him

1. My God, what mon-u-ments I see, In all around, of Thine and Thee!

I view Thee in the heav'ns a-bove;—More high than these is heav'n-ly love.

2 I mark the strong, eternal hill,—
Thy faithfulness is stronger still!
I gaze on ocean deep and broad,—
More deep Thy counsels are, O God!

3 Oh, give me 'neath Thy wings to rest,
To lean on Thy parental breast;
To feed on Thee, the living Bread,
And drink at mercy's fountain head.

4 The springs of life are all Thy own;
They flow from Thy eternal throne:
Light in Thy light alone we see:
O save us! for we rest in Thee!

2 We cast behind fear, sin and death;
With Thee we seek the things above;
Our inmost souls Thy spirit breathe,
Of power, of calmness, and of love.

3 The power, 'mid worldliness and sin,
To do, in all, the Father's will;
Like Thee the victory to win,
And bid each tempting voice be still.

4 The calmness perfect faith inspires,
Which waiteth patiently and long;
The love which faileth not, nor tires,
Triumphant over every wrong.

306. Followers of God as dear children.

1 We follow, Lord, where Thou dost lead,
And, quickened, would ascend to Thee,
Redeemed from sin, set free indeed
Into Thy glorious liberty.

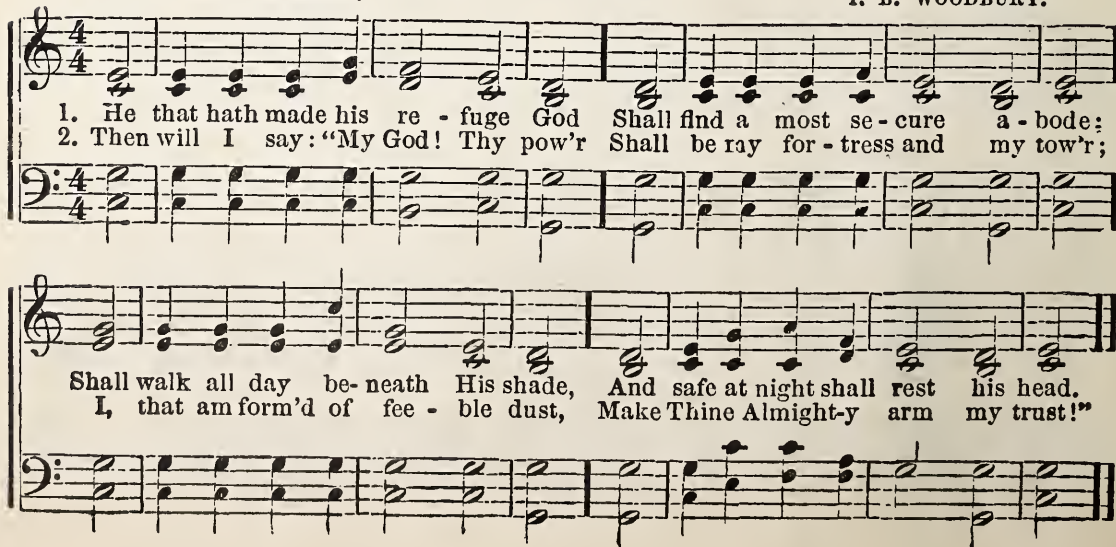

5 Thus thro' Thy quick'ning spirit, Lord,
Thy perfect life in us reveal,
And help us, as we live to God,
Still more and more with man to feel.

Shall walk all day be-neath His shade, And safe at night shall rest his head.
I, that am form'd of fee-ble dust, Make Thine Almighty arm my trust!"

1. Fa-ther, to Thy kind love we owe All that is fair and good be-low;
2. Giv-er of sun-shine and of rain! Rip-ner of fruits on hill and plain!

Be-stow-er of the health that lies On tear-less cheeks and cheer-ful eyes!
Fountain of light, that, ray'd a-far, Fills the vast urns of sun and star!

3 Who send'st Thy storms and frosts to bind
The plagues that rise to waste mankind;
Then breathe'st o'er the naked scene,
Spring gales, and life, and tender green.

4 In woe's dark hour, our kindest stay!
Sole trust when life shall pass away!
Teacher of hopes that light the gloom
Of death, and consecrate the tomb!

The rushing of the mighty wind,
The brooding of the gentle dove,—

2 Forever lend Thy sov'reign aid,
And urge us on, and keep us Thine;
Nor leave the hearts which Thou hast made
Fit temples of Thy grace divine.

4. Voice of our God, Oh, yet be near! In low, sweet ac-cents, whis-per peace;

As if its in-most depths discerned The pres-ence of a loft-ier pow'r,
A voice from forth th'e-ter-nal shades, That spake a pres-ent De-i-ty?
And bade each wor-thier tho't a-wake, And ev-'ry dream of earth de-part.

 With roots deep set in battle graves.

 A low, sweet prelude finds its way;
 Through clouds of doubt and creeds of fear
 A light is breaking, calm and clear.
- 6 Henceforth my heart shall sigh no more
 For olden time and holier shore:
 God's love and blessing, then and there,
 Are now, and here, and everywhere.

 Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
 How canst thou want if He provide,
 Or lose thy way with such a guide?

 And give me daily cause to raise
 New trophies to His endless praise.

RUSSIAN HYMN. L. M.

1. High in the heav'ns, e - ter - nal God, Thy good - ness in full glo - ry shines;
2. For ev - er firm Thy jus - tice stands, As mountains their foun - da - tions keep:

Thy truth shall break thro' ev - 'ry cloud That veils and dark - ens Thy de - signs.
Wise are the won - ders of Thy hands; Thy judg - ments are a might - y deep.

1. How blest the righteous when he dies! When sinks a trust-ing soul to rest,
 2. So fades a sum-mer cloud a-way; So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
 3. A ho-ly qui-et reigns a-round,— A calm which life nor death de-roys;

How mild-ly beam the clos-ing eyes, How gent-ly heaves th'expir-ing breast!
 So gent-ly shuts the eye of day; So dies a wave a-long the shore.
 And naught disturbs the peace pro-found Which his un fet-tered soul en-joys.

4 Farewell, conflicting hopes and fears,
 Where lights and shades alternate dwell!
 How bright the unchanging morn appears!
 Farewell, inconstant world, farewell!

5 Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
 Light from its load the spirit flies;
 While guardian angels gently say:
 "How blest the righteous when he dies!"

318. The Lord is my Shepherd.

1 The Lord of all my Shepherd is;
 What can I want, while I am His?
 In greenest fields my soul He feeds,
 My steps by stillest waters leads.

2 He guides me in His holy way,
 He brings me back, where'er I stray:
 The vale of death without a fear
 I walk,—for He is kind and near.

3 Yes! Thou art with me night and day,
 Thy rod my guide, Thy staff my stay:
 By Thee my table still is spread;
 Thy oil of gladness crowns my head.

4 Where'er I rest, where'er I go,
 I meet Thy mercies here below:
 When to Thy presence shall I soar,
 To see and praise Thee evermore?

319. "HARP OF JUDAH." AVEREEN. L. M.

L. O. EMERSON.

1. My soul be-fore Thee pros-trate lies; To Thee, her source, my spir-it flies;
 2. Take full pos-ses sion of my heart, Thy love and truth to me im-part;

My wants I mourn, My chains I see, Oh, let Thy presence set me free!
 I still will wait, O Lord, on Thee, Till, in Thy light the light I see.

3 In life's short day, let me yet more
 Of Thy enliv'ning power implore:
 My mind must deeper sink in Thee,
 My foot stand firm,—from wandering free.

4 One only care my soul should know,
 Father, all Thy commands to do;
 Ah! deep engrave it on my breast,
 That I in Thee alone am blest.

MOZART. C. M. FROM "MODERN HARP." 117

1. Fa - ther of mer - cies, God of love, My Fa - ther, and my God!
 2. In ev - 'ry pe - riod of my life Thy tho'ts of love ap - pear;
 3. In all these mer - cies may my soul A Fa - ther's boun - ty see;
 4. Teach me, in time of deep dis - tress, To own Thy hand, my God!

I'll sing the hon - ors of Thy name, And spread Thy praise a - broad.
 Thy mer - cies gild each tran - sient scene, And crown each cir - cling year.
 Nor let the gifts Thy grace be - stows Estrate my heart from Thee.
 And in sub - mis - sive si - lence bear The les - sons of Thy rod.

- 5 In every varying mortal state,
 Each bright, each gloomy scene,
 Give me a meek and humble mind,
 Still equal and serene.
 6 Then shall I close mine eyes in death,
 Without one anxious fear;
 For death itself is life, my God,
 If Thou art with me there.

321. For Guidance and Protection.

- 1 God of our fathers! by whose hand
 Thy people still are blest,
 Be with us through our pilgrimage,
 Conduct us to our rest.

- 2 Through each perplexing path of life
 Our wandering footsteps guide;
 Give us each day our daily bread,
 And raiment fit provide.

- 3 Oh, spread Thy sheltering wings around,
 Till all our wanderings cease,
 And at our Father's loved abode
 Our souls arrive in peace.

- 4 To Thee, our Father and our God,
 We our whole souls resign;
 And thankful own, that all we are
 And all we have is Thine.

322. TALLIS. C. M. (Ordinal.)

THOMAS TALLIS.

1. Fair are the feet that bring the news Of glad - ness un - to me;
 2. Thine an - gels speak, but still we must The hear - ing ear be - stow:
 3. Lo! all things are Thine an - gels, Lord, That bring my God to me;

How man - y mes - sen - gers God hath, If we had eyes to see!
 They smite the rock, but our own lips Must stoop to drink the flow:
 Oh, for the ear to hear their word! Oh, for the eye to see!

323. Rise, my Soul.

- 1 Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings,—
Thy better portion trace;
Rise, from transitory things,
Toward heaven, thy native place:
Sun and moon and stars decay,
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.
- 2 Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun,—
Both speed them to their source:
So the spirit, born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face,
Upward tends to His abode,
To rest in His embrace.

324. Quiet Religion.

- 1 Open, Lord, my inward ear,
And bid my heart rejoice;
Bid my quiet spirit hear
The comfort of Thy voice:

Never in the whirlwind found, [place,—
Or where the earthquakes rock the Still and silent is the sound,
The whisper of Thy grace.

- 2 From the world of sin and noise
And hurry, I withdraw;
For the small and inward voice
I wait with humble awe:
Silent I am now and still,
Will not in Thy presence move;
To my waiting soul reveal
The secret of Thy love.

325. He Careth for thee.

God shall bless thy going out,
Shall bless thy coming in;
Kindly compass thee about,
Till thou art saved from sin:
Lean upon Thy Father's breast;
It is He thy spirit keeps:
Rest in Him, securely rest,—
Thy Guardian never sleeps.

326. HOW SWEET TO BE ALLOWED, C. M.

Andante.

1. How sweet to be al - lowed to pray To God, the Ho - ly One,
2. We in these sa - cred words can find A cure for ev - 'ry ill;
3. Oh, let that will which gave me breath, And an immor - tal soul,
4. Oh, teach my heart the bless - ed way To im - i - tate Thy Son!

1. Lead, kindly Light, amid th'encircling gloom, Lead Thou me on; The night is dark, and I am far from home, p Lead Thou me on. cres. Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see..... The dis - tant scene,—one step e - nough for me. A - MEN.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou
Should'st lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead Thou me on. [fears,
I loved day's dazzling light; and, spite of Pride rul'd my will: remember not past years.

3 So long Thy power has blest me, surely still
'Twill lead me on [til.
Thro' dreary doubt, thro' pain and sorrow,
The night is gone,
And, with the morn, these angel faces smile,
Which I have lov'd long since, and lost awhile.

HOW SWEET TO BE ALLOWED. Concluded.

With fil - ial love and trust to say, "O God, Thy will be done!"
They calm and soothe the trou - bled mind, And bid all care be still.
In joy or grief, in life or death, My ev - 'ry wish con - trol.
Teach me, O God, in truth to pray: "Thy will, not mine, be done!"

1. Light of Life, Se - raph - ic fire! Love Di - vine, Thy - self im - part:
2. Ev - 'ry mournful spir - it cheer, Scat - ter all our doubt and gloom;

Ev - 'ry faint - ing soul in - spire; En - ter ev - 'ry droop - ing heart:
Fath - er, in Thy grace ap - pear, To Thy hu - man tem - ples come!

3 Come in this accepted hour,
Bring Thy heavenly kingdom in;
Fill us with Thy glorious power,
Rooting out the seeds of sin:

4 Nothing more can we require,
We can rest in nothing less:
Be Thou all our hearts' desire,
All our joy and all our peace.

2 What is it? and whither, whence,
This unsleeping, secret sense,
Longing for its rest and food
In some hidden, untried good?

3 'Tis the soul,—mysterious name,—
Him it seeks from whom it came:
While I muse, I feel the fire
Burning on, and mounting higher

329.

The Soul.

1 What is this that stirs within,
Loving goodness, hating sin,—
Always craving to be blest,
Finding here below no rest?

4 Onward, upward, to Thy throne,
O Thou Infinite! Unknown!
Still it presseth, till it see
Thee in all, and all in Thee.

EMERSON. 7S.

L. O. EMERSON.

330.

1 Faint the earth, and parched with drought;
Make the waters, Lord, gush out;
Streams of love our thirst to bless,
Starting in the wilderness.

2 Long we wait Thy peace to know;
Father bid the waters flow;
Make the thirsty land a pool,
Make man's suffering spirit whole.

3 Hark! the wastes have found a voice,
Loneliest deserts now rejoice;
When the Lord His presence shows,
Lo, they blossom like the rose!

4 See! this barren earth of ours
Buds and puts forth fruits and flowers,
Flowers of Eden, fruits of peace,
Love and Joy and Righteousness!

331. FROM "NEW SACRED STAR." DELAY. 7S.

121

1. Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord! Be Thy glo - rious Name a - dored;

Lord! Thy mer - cies nev - er fail,— Hail, Ce - les - tial Good - ness, hail!

2 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in Thy way;
Then on high we'll joyful raise
Songs of everlasting praise.

4 Lord! Thy mercies never fail!
Hail, Celestial Goodness, hail!
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Be Thy glorious Name adored.

332. The Lord is my Shepherd.

1 As His flock the shepherd leads
Gently through the flow'ry meads,

Where, 'mid verdant landscapes, flow
Peaceful rivers, soft and slow;

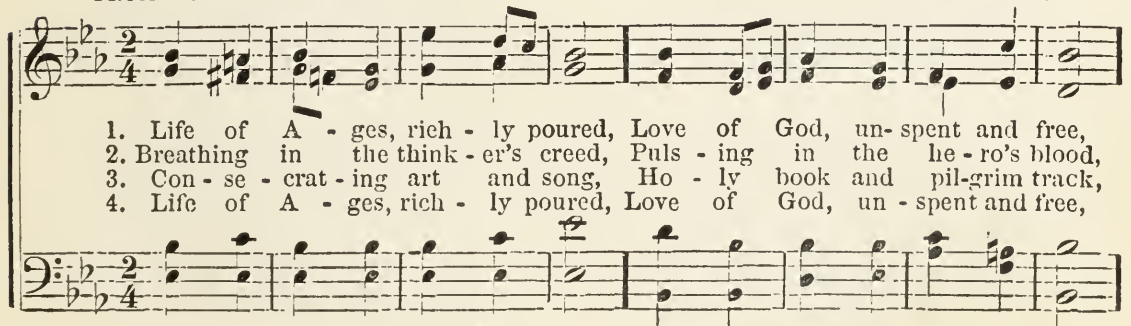

2 So doth God conduct my feet
Where the tranquil waters meet;
Streams of life, that never fail,
Winding silent through the vale.

3 Heavenly Shepherd! lead me still
Upwards to Thy holy hill;
Where untainted breezes blow,
Where unwith'ring pastures grow.

333. SOLITUDE. 7S.

FROM "GREATOR EX COLL."

L. T. DOWNES.

1. Life of A - ges, rich - ly poured, Love of God, un - spent and free,
2. Breathing in the think - er's creed, Puls - ing in the he - ro's blood,
3. Con - se - crat - ing art and song, Ho - ly book and pil - grim track,
4. Life of A - ges, rich - ly poured, Love of God, un - spent and free,

Flow - ing in the Pro - phet's word, And the Peo - ple's lib - er - ty!
Nerv - ing sim - plest tho't and deed, Fresh'ning time with truth and good.
Hurl - ing floods of ty - rant wrong From the sa - cred lim - its back.
Flow still in the Pro - phet's word, And the Peo - ple's lib - er - ty'

1. Sov'-reign and transform - ing Grace! We in - voke Thy quick'ning pow'r;
2. Ho - ly and cre - a - tive Light! We in - voke Thy kind - ling ray;

Reign the spir - it of this place; Bless the pur - pose of this hour.
Dawn up - on our spir - its' night, Turn our dark - ness in - to day.

3 To the anxious soul impart
Hope, all other hopes above;
Stir the dull and hardened heart
With a longing and a love.

4 Work in all; in all renew,
Day by day, the life divine;
All our wills to Thee subdue,
All our hearts to Thee incline!

4 To my Father can I go?—
At His feet myself I'll throw:
In His house there yet may be
Place, a servant's place, for me.

5 See, my Father waiting stands;
See, He reaches out His hands;
God is love! I know, I see
There is love for me—even me!

335. Father, I have sinned.

1 Love for all! and can it be?
Can I hope it is for me?
I, who strayed so long ago,—
Strayed so far, and fell so low!

2 I, the disobedient child,
Wayward, passionate, and wild;
I, who left the Father's home
In forbidden ways to roam!

3 I, who spurned His loving hold;
I, who would not be controlled;
I, who would not hear His call;
I, the wilful prodigal!

336 Craving a Blessing.

1 Suppliant, lo! Thy children bend,
Father, for Thy blessing now;
Thou canst teach us, guide, defend;—
We are weak, almighty Thou.

2 With the peace Thy truth imparts
Be thy children ever blest;
In their lives and in their hearts,
Father, be Thy laws impressed.

3 Pour into each longing mind
Light and knowledge from above;
Charity for all mankind,—
Trusting faith, enduring love.

DOWNES. 7S.

FROM "GREATOR EX COLL."

L. T. DOWNES.

1. Fa - ther! glo - ry be to Thee, Source of all the good we see!
2. Glo - ry for the hopes that come Streaming thro' the si - lent tomb!

L. MASON.

338. The Spirit of God invoked.

- 1 Source of good, whose power controls
Every movement of our souls;
Wind that quickens where it blows;
Comforter of human woes;
Flame of pure and holy love;
Strength of all that live and move;
Come! Thy gifts and fire impart;
Make me love Thee from the heart!
- 2 As the hart, with longing, looks
For refreshing water brooks,
Heated in the burning chase,
So my soul desires Thy grace;
So my heavy-laden breast,
By the cares of life oppressed,
Longs thy cooling streams to taste
In this dry and barren waste.
- 3 Mighty Spirit! by whose aid
Man a living soul was made;
Everlasting God! whose fire
Kindles chaste and pure desire;
Grant, in every grief and loss,
I may calmly bear the cross,
And surrender all to Thee,—
Comforting and strengthening me!

339.Rest in God.*

- 1 Oh, how safe, how happy he,
Lord of Hosts, who dwells with Thee!
Sheltered 'neath Almighty wings,
Guarded by the Kings of kings!
How to him should evil come
Who has found in Thee a home?
In the refuge of Thy breast
Give me, Lord, eternal rest!
- Hark! the voice of love divine:—
"Fear not, trembler,—thou art Mine!
Fear not! I am at thy side,
Strong to suffer, sure to guide:
Call on Me in want and woe;
I will keep thee here below;
And, thy day of conflict past,
Bear thee to Myself at last."

340The Everlasting Arms.*

Everlasting arms of Love
Are beneath, around, above;
God it is who bears us on,
His the arm we lean upon:
He, our ever-present Guide,
Faithful is, whate'er betide;
Gladly, then, we journey on,
With His arm to lean upon.

ALMA MATER.

Air: "Der Tannenbaum"

Alma Mater, laurel crowned,
 Sing we now her glory.
 Lustred years with her abound,
 Naught can dim her story.

CHORUS.

Shout we now in loud acclaim
 Voices chime in chorus.
 Laud and magnify her name,
 Alma Mater o'er us!

Years bring worth and zeal and truth
 From their store of treasure.
 Time but proves eternal youth
 Her's in joyful measure.

Learning, culture, honor, love
 Make her face resplendent;
 Bright her banner floats above,
 Guard of joys attendant.

Envious time may grey her walls;
 Blight her hopes, he'll never.
 Sound her praises through her halls,
 Alma Mater ever!

Sang we ne'er so loud and long;
 A paean raise victorious.
 Let the welkin ring with song,
 Alma Mater glorious!

Andante maestoso.

J. FAURE.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a melody with dotted rhythms and eighth notes, while the left hand plays a series of chords, many of which are beamed triplets. The tempo is marked 'Andante maestoso'.

The piano introduction continues with a 'slargando' (ritardando) marking. The right hand has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand continues with beamed triplets. A 'dim.' (diminuendo) marking is present. The section concludes with a 'p' (piano) dynamic and a 'a tempo' marking.

The vocal entry begins with a treble clef staff. The piano accompaniment starts with a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: 1. A - round our way the palm-trees and the flow - ers, 2. His voice is heard and na - tions at the sound, 3. Re - jice e'en thou O dear Je - ru - sa - lem, The piano part features a series of chords, some beamed triplets, and a 'p' (piano) dynamic marking.

The vocal entry continues with the lyrics: Send forth their per-fumes on our fes - tal day — Have now re-gained that free - dom sought in vain — Thy chil - dren now sing the Re - deem - er's name — The piano part continues with chords and triplets, marked with 'p e cresc.' (piano e crescendo) and 'ff' (fortissimo).

THE MUSIC STUDENTS LIBRARY

A series of educational text-books suited to the requirements of the average student
These books are bound in cloth. Copies of any will be sent for examination.

EAR TRAINING FOR TEACHER AND PUPIL. By C. A. Alchin. Not to take the place of a text-book or harmony, but designed rather, through training the sense of hearing, to teach the pupil to think in tones, so that he may sing, name, write, and play what he hears.

Price, post-paid, $1.00

INTERVALS, CHORDS, AND EAR TRAINING. By Jean Parkman Brown. A simple and yet thorough set of exercises and examples in rudimentary harmony and ear training for use in conjunction with the study of the piano.

Price, post-paid, $1.00

HARMONY. By Sir John Stainer, Mus. Doc. A new edition of a standard text-book which presents the principles of harmony with conciseness and lucidity.

Price, post-paid, 75 cents

HARMONY SIMPLIFIED. By Francis L. York, M. A. A practical text-book presenting to the student in a concise manner the fundamental principles of harmony, with non-essentials omitted.

Price, post-paid, $1.00

HARMONIC ANALYSIS. By Benjamin Cutter. This book teaches one to analyze the harmonic structure of both classic and modern music and to hear with greater understanding, to read at sight with more facility, and to play or sing with more intelligence.

Price, post-paid, $1.25

LESSONS IN MUSIC FORM. By Dr. Percy Goetschius. A manual of analysis of all the structural factors and designs employed in musical composition, explaining thoroughly each design or form from the smallest to the largest; intended for the general music lover or student.

Price, post-paid, $1.25

BURROWES' PIANO PRIMER. Edited and Revised by Frederic Field Bullard. A new and enlarged edition of a well-known work. The editor has preserved the original text and contents, as far as possible, corrected faulty terminology and replaced old-fashioned terms by modern ones. The pronunciation of each foreign word is given in the text as it occurs.

Price, post-paid, 50 cents

HOW TO STUDY KREUTZER. By Benjamin Cutter. By putting in book form what every teacher discusses and illustrates in the lesson room, the writer explains to all violin players those principles which have made the studies of Kreutzer so justly famous.

Price, post-paid, 75 cents

ENGLISH DICTION FOR SINGERS AND SPEAKERS. By Louis Arthur Russell. While this book is put forth by the author especially for the guidance of singers, it is also intended to meet the needs of public speakers, and, in fact, all who pretend to refined or artistic use of the English language.

Price, post-paid, $1.00

THE TRAINING OF BOYS' VOICES. By Claude Ellsworth Johnson. A thorough and practical guide to the correct "placing" and training of boys' voices. A noteworthy feature of the book is an extensive list of sacred and secular music especially written for, or adapted to, the uses of boy choirs and schools.

Price, post-paid, 75 cents
